indicating student is prepared to take UDS and has met all course requirements.*

Double majors where one major is not in music are not required to have met all requirements. Transfer students with at least two years of college study as a music major may apply for UDS if they have at least one year of music theory, aural skills and piano, one semester of music history, four semesters of studio instruction at the music major level and the approval of the studio instructor or area coordinator in the case of voice and keyboard.

Major (check each one that applies) – Please indicate if you have a double major outside of music.
