As part of the application process, every applicant to the University of Idaho must respond to the following two questions. Processing of your admission file will not continue until these questions have been answered. Please mail, e-mail or fax this completed form and any required personal statements to the Graduate Admissions Office using the contact information above.

1. Have you ever been found responsible for a disciplinary violation at any educational institution you have attended from the 9th grade forward (or the international equivalent), whether related to academic misconduct or behavioral misconduct that resulted in disciplinary action? These actions could include, but are not limited to: reprimand, warning, probation, suspension, removal, dismissal, or expulsion from the educational institution.
   - ☐ Yes
   - ☐ No

2. Other than minor traffic offenses (e.g., speeding, parking tickets, etc.), (1) have you ever been adjudicated guilty or convicted, had a withheld judgment, or pleaded no contest to a misdemeanor, felony, or other crime, (2) are such charges pending against you, or (3) have you been required to register as a sex offender by any legal authority in the U.S. or any other country? (Note: If the criminal adjudication or conviction has been expunged, sealed, annulled, pardoned, erased, or otherwise ordered by the court to be kept confidential, then you are not required to answer "Yes" to this question, or provide an explanation.)
   - ☐ Yes
   - ☐ No

If you answered "Yes" to either or both questions, please submit a personal statement of the circumstances, approximate date(s) of incident(s), and your thoughts on lessons learned from the experience. The review committee will consider this statement in conjunction with all other application information provided when making an admission decision.
