Audit Form for Natural Resources and Environmental Law Emphasis

Required Courses:

☐ Administrative Law: Law 907 [3 cr.]

and three of the following:

☐ Environmental Law I: Law 947 [3 cr.]]
☐ Introduction to Natural Resource Law (Public Lands): Law 948 [3 cr.]
☐ Water Law I and II: Law 942, 969 [3 cr.]
☐ International Environmental and Water Law: Law 938 [3 cr.]

Elective Courses: Six credit hours drawn from the list above that have not used as one of the three requirements, and the following list with approval by the faculty advisor:

☐ Environmental Law II: Law 951 [3 cr.]
☐ Native American Natural Resources Law: Law 979 [3 cr.]
☐ Native American Law: Law 949 [3 cr.]
☐ Land Use Law and Planning: Law 934 [3 cr.]
☐ Law and Science Seminar: Law 939 [3 cr., alternate years]
☐ Natural Resources Law and Policy: Law 906 [3 cr., alternate years]
☐ Natural Resource Law and History: Law 937 [3 cr., alternate years]
☐ Water Policy Seminar: Law 946 [3 cr., alternate years]

☐ Externship: Law 972 [up to 3 cr.]
_____(credits) [placement approved by advisor ____(advisor's initials)]

☐ Interdisciplinary Methods in Water Resources [3 cr., fall] WR 506 _____ up to 6 credits may be satisfied by non-law courses with approval of both the advisor _____(initials) and the Associate Dean for Administration and Students _____(initials).

Emphasis-area students are encouraged to take at least one non-law course.

_____ TOTAL Elective Credits [must be at least 6 credits]

Writing Requirement:

The student must complete a major research paper of approximately 15,000 words under the supervision of their faculty advisor. The paper may also be used to satisfy the upper division writing requirement if it meets those requirements.

_____ [initials of faculty advisor]