

NOMINATION FOR:

University Distinguished Professor
2018-19

Professor First Last

Date: December 1, 2018

To: John Wiencek, Provost and Executive Vice President

From: First Last, title/position (nominator)

Subject: Distinguished Professor Nomination for First Last

This is the nominating letter with a brief summary of the candidate's achievements.

Letters/memos should address the candidate's qualifications in regard to the rank as provided in the policy. The Rank is meant to be highly honorific and therefore will be conferred on no more than three faculty members university-wide in any given academic year. Selection of University Distinguished Professors will reflect the diversity of scholarly fields at the University of Idaho.

In general, University Distinguished Professors will have received national and usually international recognition. They will have brought distinction to the University of Idaho via their activities.

Specifically, a University Distinguished Professor will have achieved a superior record, as judged by peers, in the following areas: scholarly, creative, and artistic achievement; breadth and depth of teaching in their discipline; and university service and service involving the application of scholarship, creative, or artistic activities to addressing the needs of one or more external publics.

University Distinguished Professorships will be conferred on members of the University of Idaho Faculty who have attained the rank of Professor and have served at the University a minimum of seven years. Because the rank of University Distinguished Professorship is intended to be highly honorific, it is possible that in a given year no suitable candidates will be identified.
