Negotiable Instruments
Professor Wendy Gerwick Couture

First Class: Tuesday, January 14, 2014
Moscow: 12:30-1:45 p.m.; Boise: 1:30-2:45 p.m.

Required Course Materials

Casebook: Rusch et al., Payment Systems: Problems, Materials, and Cases (West 2011), ISBN 978-0-314-26666-8.

Supplement: Chomsky et al., Selected Commercial Statutes for Payment Systems Courses (West 2012), ISBN 978-0-314-28256-9.

If your books have not arrived before the first class and you are unable to borrow the books from a classmate in order to complete the reading assignment, contact Prof. Couture to obtain a copy of the assigned pages.

Assignment for the First Class, Jan. 14

[EVERYONE is "on call" for this material.]

- Register for this course on TWEN.
- Read and be prepared to discuss pages 1-25 of the casebook, including problems 1-1 and 1-2.
- Also read in the statutory supplement all provisions referenced in the above reading assignment.

Materials to Bring to the First Class

In addition to the casebook and statutory supplement, bring the following materials to the first class:

- Electronic or hard copy of the Course Overview. (The Course Overview is posted on TWEN.)
- Electronic or hard copy of the 1-14-14 Slides. (These PowerPoint slides will be posted on TWEN at least 30 minutes before the first class.)

Assignment for the Second Class, Jan. 16

[Group A is "on call" for this material.]

- Read and be prepared to discuss pages 55-70 (stop after second paragraph) of the casebook.
- Also read in the statutory supplement all provisions referenced in the above reading assignment.

Please contact Professor Couture at wgcouture@uidaho.edu if you have any questions or have trouble accessing any of the above materials.