Verification of Financial Assistance for International Students

International students must show funding for one academic year prior to the Graduate Admissions Office issuing an I-20 (the document needed to obtain a visa). Part or all of this funding may come from personal funds, private sponsor, government agency, and your department. The information you supply on this form will be used by our office to complete the financial portion of the I-20.

Please complete this verification sheet and return it to the Graduate Admissions Office, Campus Zip: 3019. Please contact the Graduate Admissions Office if you have any questions (885-4001).
