Adjusted Curricular Path to Graduation

Students seeking to earn a J.D. on an Adjusted Curricular Path, meaning less than full-time, must keep the following in mind:

- The requirements for the J.D. must be completed within 6 years of beginning the course of study;
- Eligibility for financial aid is premised upon taking at least 5 credits in a given semester; and
- The first 8 credits in fall/spring are charged per credit; 9 credits or more is charged the flat-rate full-time tuition.

LEGAL ANALYSIS & WRITING is considered a year-long course, with the credits being fully earned, and credited, by the end of the course in Spring. Keep in mind that the time commitment in Fall is equal to 2 credits, with the time commitment in Spring equal to 3 credits.
