

Extension Curricula Series (ECS)

What They Are

- Sets of teaching materials intended to guide instruction
- Individual lesson plans or activities

Audience

- Primary Audience: Extension educators, 4-H volunteers and leaders, and other instructors/teachers
- Secondary Audience: specific learner audiences
  - For example: 4-H youth, adult learners, etc.

Format

- The final design can vary depending on the scope of the project and the target audiences
- All curricula include the following elements:
  - Title Page with author names and affiliations
  - Introduction/Overview
  - Course goals and learning objectives
  - Lesson plans/instructor notes
  - Lesson learning objectives
  - Estimated time to deliver
  - Required materials
  - References and credits
- Please note that the Idaho Master Gardener Handbook has its own format and template (See Master Gardener Handbook)

What They Aren't

- Online courses (see Extension Multimedia Series)
- Instructional videos (see Educational Video Series)
- Recorded webinars (contact Extension Publishing for more information)

QUESTIONS?

UI Extension Publishing staff are always happy to discuss your options with you. Contact us at calspubs@uidaho.edu or 208-885-7982