UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO EMERGENCY SHORT TERM LOAN APPLICATION

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: The Emergency Short Term Loan Program is designed to help students with unexpected or emergency-related situations. The maximum amount which a student can borrow during a semester will be $600. Students who are approved to borrow under this program must meet specific guidelines. Repayment of the loan must be made within 90 days. This program cannot be used to pay fees.

TERMS: The maximum loan amount is $600; however, this limit may be increased during the first two weeks of the semester. The interest rate is 7% per annum on the unpaid principal balance. If you are unable to repay this loan by the due date, you may negotiate an extension with the Student Accounts Office. A minimum interest charge of $1.00 will be assessed if the accrued interest at time of repayment is less than that amount.
