University of Idaho

Student Financial Aid Services 875 Perimeter Drive MS4291 Moscow, ID 83844-4291 PHONE: 208-885-6312 FAX: 208-885-5592

EMAIL: finaid@uidaho.edu WEB: www.uidaho.edu/finaid

| Office Use Only | | | |
|-----------------|-------|-----|--|
| Doc: | SALET | #19 | |
| Tkg Grp: | | | |
| Comp. Date: | | | |
| Comp. Date: | | | |
| | , | | |

2013-2014 Student/Spouse Appeal Letter

| • | P.P. | | |
|--|---|--|--|
| Student: Please Print | Student ID or SSN: | | |
| Today's Date: | Phone #: | | |
| You have indicated that you (and/or your spouse if you are married your ability to contribute to your education. In order for our office submit a letter of appeal specifically explaining the situation a Contribution (Form #18 on our website). | to consider these extenuating circumstances, you must | | |
| If you have not updated your 2013-14 FAFSA with filed tax info until you do so. Log onto www.fafsa.gov and use the IRS Data | | | |
| Situations that may warrant special consideration include but are no | ot limited to: | | |
| Loss of employment and/or a significant decrease in earning Injury or disability which prevented earning usual income or Loss of benefits, such as unemployment, social security, ch Significant medical/dental expenses that will not be covered Significant one-time increase in income was received in 201 Other | a natural disaster that prevented earning usual income ild support, welfare, etc. | | |
| Your letter of appeal should be specific and address how, when and to attach appropriate documentation, such as statements from embelow or attach a separate, signed letter. | | | |
| | | | |
| CERTIFICATION: By signing this worksheet, I (we) certify that all the information reported on it is complete and correct. | | | |
| Student Signature: | Date: | | |
| Spouse (if married) Signature: | Date: | | |