

International Education Week Presentation & Event Descriptions

TIME	PRESENTATION/EVENT	DESCRIPTION	TARGET AUDIENCE	LOCATION	COST
Saturday, November 2, 2013
11:00AM-5:00PM	Cruise The World	The University of Idaho's International Programs Office with the support of ASUI will host the annual Cruise the World event. Admission tickets are exchanged at the Ballroom door for cultural passports, which are marked by students from over 30 countries. Students from around the world (more than 25 countries) offer interactive cultural learning opportunities at every table, live entertainment on stage every ½ hour and food that is traditional to their country. Food will be available for purchase at additional costs from the entry fee.	Moscow & UI Community, Students, Faculty & Staff	SUB Ballroom	$3 per person, and $9 for a family (up to 2 adults and 3 children). Children under age five are admitted for free. Tickets can be purchased the day of the event at the SUB Information Desk
Tuesday, November 5, 2013
3:30-5:00PM	Fulbright Forum 2013	Are you interested in learning about how to receive a prestigious Fulbright Award to teach, conduct research, or participate in a short-term international program in a country overseas? The Fulbright Forum will feature a panel of former Fulbrighters who received awards as faculty, staff, or administrators. They will share their experiences, discuss the types of awards available, and offer application tips to interested future awardees.	Faculty & Staff	Commons Whitewater Room	Free
Saturday, November 9, 2013
5:00-8:00PM	El Color de Nuestra Tierra - Hispanic Heritage Celebration	This Saturday MAS (Movimiento Activista Social) presents "El Color de Nuestra Tierra" which celebrates, recognizes, informs, and educates the public about Latin American folklore. This event is FREE and open to the public. There will be live performances, music and free food. The food & Latin American countries' presentation will be from 6-8 p.m. The cultural showcase includes: poetry, traditional and modern dances and singing from Latino America.	Moscow & UI Community, Students, Faculty & Staff	SUB Ballroom	Free; contact oma@uidaho.edu or call 885-7716
Monday, November 11, 2013
11:00-11:50	Understanding Arabic Language & Culture	This presentation discusses the difficulties and concerns facing both instructors and Arab students enrolling at ESL institutions in preparation in joining American universities. These difficulties involve: Linguistics Challenges, Rhetorical and Stylistic Challenges, Cultural Challenges, American Universities Lifestyle Challenges, Political and Personal Challenges. This presentation also proposes solutions to overcome many of these challenges.	Faculty & Staff	SRC 103	Free
12:00-1:45 PM	Cultural Activity*		Students, Faculty & Staff	UI Commons: Open Area	Free
12:00-12:50 PM	True Cost of Studying Abroad	Come learn how studying abroad is financially possible for all students no matter what your budget or financial background may be.	Students	SRC 103	Free
2:00-2:50 PM	UI Confucius Institute: Chinese Culture, Language & Educational Opportunities	This session introduces you to the highlights and benefits from having a Confucius Institute in Moscow, Idaho at the University of Idaho. Learn about Chinese culture, language and the many educational opportunities available to the whole community.	Students, Faculty & Staff	TLC 241	Free
3:30-4:20 PM	Study Abroad through USAC	Come learn about study abroad options through the USAC (University Studies Abroad Consortium) program from student alumni and Study Abroad staff.	Students	TLC 241	Free
Tuesday, November 12, 2013
11:00-11:50 AM	African Culture & Music	This session describes a three week travel and experiential learning opportunity through (but not limited to): Savannah and Serengeti safaris, academic tours, socio-historic sites, cultural and village performances, ceremonies, festivities, drum and dance lessons, living w/ extended family, and countless cultural exchanges.	Students	SRC 103	Free
12:00-1:45 PM	Cultural Activity*		Students, Faculty & Staff	UI Commons: Open Area	Free
12:00-12:50 PM	Looking Deeper: How Chinese Proverbs Affect Chinese Students	Learning well-known Chinese proverbs and how they influence Chinese students who choose to study in the U.S. Learn how these cultural norms can affect their approach to adjusting to the U.S. culture and American Teaching methods.	Student Advisors, Teaching Staff & Faculty	SRC 103	Free
2:00-2:50 PM	First Time Study Abroad Information Sessions	These sessions help students understand the important elements of preparing for a successful study abroad experience including program selection, academic planning and credit transfer policies, financial aid and scholarships, and essential travel documents.	Students	IPO Conference Room; LLC Building #3	Free, On-going
3:00-3:50 PM	Inviting International Researchers & Scholars to the UI	This workshop will help you with the process of inviting or hiring international visiting scholars to the UI for collaborative teaching and/or research efforts and offer you tips on how you can establish an effective and positive academic and cultural exchange program for yourself and your invited scholar.	Faculty & Staff intersting in collaborating with int'l researchers and professors	LLC 133	Free
4:00-5:00 PM	International Programs Office Open House & Reception	Come meet your International Programs Office staff at our open house and reception. Take a walk through our different departmental units and meet the people that help connect us globally and locally to other cultures.	Students, Faculty & Staff	International Programs Office; LLC Building #3	Free

International Education Week Presentation & Event Descriptions

TIME	PRESENTATION/EVENT	DESCRIPTION	TARGET AUDIENCE	LOCATION	COST
Wednesday, November 13, 2013
11:00-11:50 AM	International Alternative Service Breaks	Come learn about the Center for Volunteerism and Social Action's alternative service break program which sends students to international locations to perform various forms of service and interact with their local communities.	Students	SRC 103
12:00-1:45 PM	Cultural Activity*		Students, Faculty & Staff	UI Commons: Open Area	Free
12:00-12:50	International Job and Volunteer Opportunities	Interested in working or volunteering abroad either during college or after? Come learn about some exciting and rewarding opportunities available to you.	Students	SRC 103	Free
2:00-2:50 PM	International Studies Internship and Volunteering in Togo	This workshop will present a new Faculty/Staff-Led International Travel to Togo during summer 2014 and will outline the objectives, partners, schedule and cost of the program. The International Studies Internship and Volunteer Opportunity in Togo provides a platform for International Studies majors to fulfill the international experience requirement. It also offers a unique opportunity to UI students to experience life and work conditions in Francophone Africa. During the course of the program, students will be placed with local NGOs and Community-Based Organizations (CBOs) where they will put into practice some of the knowledge gained in classroom, while also gaining valuable work experience.	Students	TLC 241	Free
3:00-3:50 PM	International Scholarship Information Session for U.S. Undergraduate and Graduate Students	University of Idaho students continue to be successful in receiving prestigious national scholarships such as Fulbright, Boren, Gilman and the Critical Language Scholarship. Learn what it takes to see if these scholarships are a good fit for you.	Students	TLC 241	Free
Thursday, November 14, 2013
11:00-11:50 AM	Culture Shock and Acculturation	Having troubles engaging an international student in classroom interaction or simply not showing up to class or doing their homework? There could be underlying causes stemming from culture shock. Learn what our international students can be experiencing and how it relates to their studies, time management, interactions and much more.	Student Advisors & Teaching Staff & Faculty	SRC 103	Free
12:00-1:45 PM	Cultural Activity*		Students, Faculty & Staff	UI Commons: Open Area	Free
12:00-12:50 PM	International Professional Development Opportunities for Faculty & Staff	This session will provide an overview how faculty and staff can take advantage of UI international professional development opportunities through the Faculty/Staff International Development Awards Program (FIDA), the USAC Faculty Teaching Abroad program, and Faculty/Staff-led International Travel Programs (FSIT). Panelists will talk about their past experiences participating in, or facilitating, these programs.	Faculty & Staff	SRC 103	Free
2:00-4:00 PM	Get Involved International Fair	Want to experience other cultures but don't have the time or money? Learn about the many ways you can be involved internationally through student clubs, conversation partners, Friendship Families, and many other volunteer opportunities.	Students, Faculty & Staff	LLC 132 & 133	Free
Friday, November 15, 2013
11:00-11:50 AM	Pakistani Experiences Studying in the US	Learn about the experiences of a Pakistani student at the University of Idaho through the IREX program.	Students, Faculty & Staff	SRC 103	Free
12:00-1:45 PM	Cultural Activity*		Students, Faculty & Staff	UI Commons: Open Area	Free
12:00-12:50 PM	Avenues of Support in Working with Int'l Students	Do you work with international students who struggle linguistically or culturally? Come learn how the American Language & Culture Program can be a support and resource for student advisors, teaching staff, and faculty.	Advisors & Faculty	SRC 103	Free
2:00-2:50 PM	Study Abroad through ISA	Come learn about study abroad options through the ISA (International Studies Abroad) program from student alumni and Study Abroad staff.	Students	SRC 103	Free
3:00-3:50 PM	Uzbekistan, The Sapphire of Asia: An Uzbek's Perspective	Learn about Uzbek traditions, customs, arts and handcrafts, national cuisine, and it's unique perspective from UI's very own Uzbek international student.	Students, Faculty & Staff	SRC 103	Free
Monday, November 18th, 2013
6:00 PM	Oxfam Hunger Banquet	The University International Affairs Club will host the annual Oxfam Hunger Banquet to raise funds for Oxfam America and to increase poverty awareness. For more information, contact Cassie Byrne at (208) 301-4339.	Moscow & UI Community, Students, Faculty & Staff	SUB Ballroom

IEW Events E: Events P: Presentations A: Activities	Locations: SRC 103: Student Recreation Center Classroom LLC: Living Learning Community Rooms 132 & 133 SUB: Student Union Building Ballroom IPO: International Programs Office, LLC #3	Study Abroad 1st Time Information Sessions: Monday- 3:30-4:20 PM Wednesday- 2:30-3:20 PM Thursday- 11:00-11:50 AM Friday- 12:30-1:20 PM	*Cultural Activities: Calligraphy Henna Sabor de la Raza Dance
---	---	--	--