AWARDS PROGRAM PROTOCOL
• The Alumni Association directors and the Alumni Relations office staff facilitate the alumni award process and do not nominate candidates or advocate for nominees.
• The University of Idaho desires to promote and encourage diversity in all campus areas including employment, student recruitment and the alumni awards process.
• The University of Idaho Alumni Association Awards Committee reserves the right to move candidates and their nomination to other alumni award categories.
• The University of Idaho Alumni Association Awards Committee exercises sole discretion in the review of nominations and selection of alumni award recipients.
• The University of Idaho, for the award program purposes, currently defines “alumni status” as those with a University of Idaho degree, or 90+ University of Idaho credits. This also includes the recipients of the University of Idaho honorary degrees and honorary University of Idaho alumni within eligibility for “alumni status” awards.
• All awards nominations and the nominee review process shall be confidential.

AWARDS PROGRAM BACKGROUND
The Alumni Awards program began in 1962 and serves as the Alumni Association mechanism to directly recognize and reward deserving University of Idaho alumni, volunteers and other individuals.

ADDITIONAL ALUMNI HONORS & RECOGNITIONS

HONORARY ALUMNI RECOGNITION

The recognition of “University of Idaho honorary alumni” is a reward bestowed by the University of Idaho Alumni Association from the national Board of Directors and the Awards and Recognition Committee to a very limited number of persons that have served the University of Idaho, and the university’s alumni with “great distinction while providing faithful and distinguished service to the University of Idaho”. This honor is to recognize outstanding leadership and service, and to identify those special persons that are critical to the success of our alma mater.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SERVICE RECOGNITION

The Service Recognition honors an individual or group that has given extraordinary service and or displayed significant dedication to the University of Idaho or to the Alumni Association. This recognition is presented on rare occasions and is designed as a formal “thank-you” for a significant action, or noteworthy continued service to the university or alumni association. These nominations are submitted to and reviewed by Executive Director of Alumni Relations.

Effective 11/1/08

The University of Idaho desires to promote and encourage diversity in all campus areas including employment, student recruitment and the alumni awards process.

Additional information and nomination material available at University of Idaho Alumni Association Web site at www.uidaho.edu/alumni listed under awards.
