HONORARY ALUMNI RECOGNITION
The recognition of “University of Idaho honorary alumni” is a reward bestowed by the University of Idaho Alumni Association from the national Board of Directors and the Awards and Recognition Committee to a very limited number of persons that have served the University of Idaho, and the university’s alumni with “great distinction while providing faithful and distinguished service to the University of Idaho”. This honor is to recognize outstanding leadership and service, and to identify those special persons that are critical to the success of our alma mater. Reviewed and evaluated in advance by UIAA Award and Recognition committee.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SERVICE RECOGNITION
The Service Recognition honors an individual or group that has given extraordinary service and or displayed significant dedication to the University of Idaho or to the Alumni Association. This recognition is presented on rare occasions and is designed as a formal “thank-you” for a significant action, or noteworthy continued service to the university or alumni association. These nominations are submitted to and reviewed by Executive Director of Alumni Relations.

The University of Idaho desires to promote and encourage diversity in all campus areas including employment, student recruitment and the alumni awards process.
