UI College of Law First-Year Enrollment Increases Despite Nationwide Downturn

Contrary to national and regional trends, the University of Idaho College of Law (Idaho Law) is showing increases in enrollment, diversity and total applications. "The excellence of our programs comes from the combined efforts of many people," said Michael Satz, interim dean. "But the end result is that a law degree from the University of Idaho provides countless opportunities and a promising future. We are excited to welcome Idaho Law's class of 2016 into our community."
