TODAY'S REGISTER

Oct. 21-27, 2013

To get earlier notices of events, the new calendar can help you. Try it: www.uidaho.edu/calendar.

NEWS:

- --Samuels Named UI Native American Student Center Director
- --Historic Vandal Athletic Resources Explored in U-Idaho Library Research Colloquium
- --UI Increases New First-year and Graduate Students; Improves Student Diversity; Draws Record Number of National Merit Scholars
- --More Women Find Their Place in Farming: UI sociologist Ryanne Pilgeram is recording female farmers' stories and studying their impact on agriculture
- --UI Celebrates Dads in Plaid for Dads' Weekend
- --UI MOSS Video Wins on Own Merit
- --Leadership Change Announced in Enrollment Management
- --UI Researchers Help Decode New View of Saturn's Moon Titan, Contribute to Cassini Mission

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- -- Presidential Candidate Finalist Session Tuesday: James L. Applegate
- -- Presidential Candidate Finalist Session Today: James L. Applegate
- --Finalists Named: University of Idaho, Dean, College of Letters, Arts, and Social Sciences
- --Staff Openings on University-wide Committees
- --Increase Your Grant Writing Successes Webinar
- -- Presidential Candidate Finalist Session Thursday: Chuck Staben

- --Free Flu Shots Available to Staff, Faculty and Students
- -- Presidential Candidate Finalist Session Today: Chuck Staben
- --Gain a New Outlook By Registering for PDL Training
- --General Curriculum Report #271

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS/KUDOS:

-- EagleWoman Named One of Nine Notable Women Who Rule American Indian Law

IN MEMORIAM:

- --In Memoriam: Rob Miller
- -- In Memoriam: Carol Marlowe

EVENTS:

- --Today's events
- --Tomorrow's events
- --This week's events

Samuels Named UI Native American Student Center Director

Already a member of the Vandal family, alumna Sydel Samuels will be joining the University of Idaho in a new capacity. She was recently named the director of the University of Idaho Native American Student Center from a pool of highly qualified candidates. Read more.

Historic Vandal Athletic Resources Explored in U-Idaho Library Research Colloquium

The University of Idaho Library's Vandal Video Collection, Vandal Football Historical Gameday Program Covers Collection and other historical Vandal Athletics resources will be explored in a University of Idaho Library Research Colloquium Series program scheduled for Friday, Nov. 1, at 12:30 p.m. on the main floor of the library. The public is invited to attend. Read more.

UI Increases New First-year and Graduate Students; Improves Student Diversity; Draws Record Number of National Merit Scholars

The University of Idaho today announced a decline in overall student enrollment for the fall semester 2013 but also reported slight increases in the number of first-year undergraduates and new graduate students, as well as an increase in international student enrollment. In addition, the UI enrolled a record 25 National Merit Scholars in this year's first-year undergraduate class. Read more.

More Women Find Their Place in Farming: *UI sociologist Ryanne Pilgeram is recording female farmers' stories and studying their impact on agriculture*After more than 150 years of near ownership exclusion, American women are gaining a foothold on the farm. This time around, many are purchasing land on their own, rather than just marrying into farm families - whose property rights favored second-generation male heirs over farm widows or their daughters. Read more.

UI Celebrates Dads in Plaid for Dads' Weekend

It's time for University of Idaho dads to get out their plaid and celebrate Dads' Weekend with their Vandal Nov. 1-3. "Dads' weekend allows our students to bring their parents on campus to get an insight into what a day looks like in their students' lives," Lauren Hamilton, UI student alumni program coordinator, said. "It provides a connection between parents and students while they are separated." Read more.

UI MOSS Video Wins on Own Merit

It's a great story to tell and the public agrees. A video telling the story of the McCall Outdoor Science School (MOSS), a program of the University of Idaho College of Natural Resources, won the People's Choice award at the 14th Annual Conference for the Engagement Scholarship Consortium in Lubbock, Texas. Almost 500 people from across the U.S. and many other countries attended the conference. Read more.

Leadership Change Announced in Enrollment Management

Steven Neiheisel, assistant vice president for enrollment management, will be leaving the University of Idaho at the end of the month. Neiheisel has accepted a position at Northern Michigan University as their vice president for enrollment and student services. Jeffrey Dodge has agreed to take on interim leadership with the core directors in the enrollment management unit. He will begin his appointment Oct. 27, 2013. Read more.

UI Researchers Help Decode New View of Saturn's Moon Titan, Contribute to Cassini Mission

A team of NASA researchers around the nation, including scientists at the University of Idaho, revealed this week a new view of Saturn's moon Titan. With the sun now shining down over Titan, a little luck with the weather, and trajectories that put the spacecraft into optimal viewing positions, NASA's Cassini spacecraft has obtained new pictures of the liquid methane and ethane seas and lakes that reside near Titan's north pole. The images reveal new clues about how the lakes formed and Titan's Earth-like "hydrologic" cycle that involves hydrocarbons rather than water. Read more.

Presidential Candidate Finalist Session Tuesday: James L. Applegate
Please plan to attend the Open Forum with presidential candidate James L.
Applegate in the Administration Building Auditorium Tuesday Oct. 22 at 9 a.m.
For those who can't make that time, there will also be a Community Dialog and Reception in the 1912 Center at 3:30 p.m. For more information, click here: http://www.uidaho.edu/president/presidential-search/search-finalists.

Presidential Candidate Finalist Session Today: James L. Applegate
Please plan to attend the Open Forum with presidential candidate James L.
Applegate in the Administration Building Auditorium Tuesday Oct. 22 at 9 a.m.
For those who can't make that time, there will also be a Community Dialog and Reception in the 1912 Center at 3:30 p.m. For more information, click
here: http://www.uidaho.edu/president/presidential-search/search-finalists.

Finalists Named: University of Idaho, Dean, College of Letters, Arts, and Social Sciences

The search advisory committee and Provost and Executive Vice President Katherine G. Aiken are pleased to announce that finalists have been selected to visit Moscow in October and November. The schedules have been coordinated to avoid overlap with the presidential candidates. Faculty, staff, students, and stakeholders will have an opportunity to participate in an open session in Moscow. The sessions will be recorded and available for review from the search website following the final candidate's visit to Moscow. Information about the finalists, the details of the open sessions, feedback forms, and the link to find and view recorded sessions is: www.uidaho.edu/provost/deansearches/CLASS. Please click the on-site interview link located on the left side of the site.

Staff Openings on University-wide Committees

Staff representatives from across the university are needed, including off-campus representatives for committees that are university-wide. These committees are a great way for staff to be involved in activities that directly impact the entire University. Full descriptions of the committees are available here: www.webpages.uidaho.edu/fsh/1640.html. Staff Vacancies: (1) Borah Foundation and (1) Ubuntu. If you are staff and interested in serving on any of these committees, please fill out the online application form, www.uidaho.edu/staffaffairs/members/university-wide-committee-application.

Increase Your Grant Writing Successes Webinar

Register for a free webinar series on "Outcome Thinking and Management." All webinars are free and open to the campus and community. You will learn to: 1) develop client-based targets and milestones for your programs, 2) communicate your project's scope and intended results with outcome language, and 3) address outcomes in proposals to build donor confidence about their investment. Oct. 22 and 29 from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the Development Office Conference Room. To register, please contact Debbie Hornbuckle at hornbuckle@uidaho.edu, 208-885-0533.

Presidential Candidate Finalist Session Thursday: Chuck Staben

Please plan to attend the Open Forum with presidential candidate Chuck Staben in the Administration Building Auditorium Thursday Oct. 24 at 9 a.m. For those who can't make that time, there will also be a Community Dialog and Reception in the 1912 Center at 3:30 p.m. For more information, click here: http://www.uidaho.edu/president/presidential-search/search-finalists.

Free Flu Shots Available to Staff, Faculty and Students

This fall, Student Health Services is providing free seasonal flu vaccine to staff, faculty and students. In order to keep campus as healthy as possible this cold and flu season, please take a few minutes out of your day and get a flu shot. This will not only help you stay healthy, but it will prevent you from being a carrier of influenza and passing it on to others. As a reminder, being in close contact with others puts people at higher risk of spreading illnesses, and vaccination is the best way to prevent the spread of the flu virus. The clinics will run 1-5 p.m. on Oct. 28 and 10 a.m.-2 p.m. on Oct. 29 in the TLC 143 Lounge. Please bring your Vandal card. For more information, please visit www.uidaho.edu/flu.

Presidential Candidate Finalist Session Today: Chuck Staben

Please plan to attend the Open Forum with presidential candidate Chuck Staben in the Administration Building Auditorium Thursday Oct. 24 at 9 a.m. For those who can't make that time, there will also be a Community Dialog and Reception in the 1912 Center at 3:30 p.m. For more information, click here: http://www.uidaho.edu/president/presidential-search/search-finalists.

Gain a New Outlook By Registering for PDL Training

Register for this week's highlight training from Professional Development and Learning with "Office 365 Training Series: Outlook 2013 and Outlook Web App (OWA) Basics." Other opportunities include: "Mastering Excel Functions & Formulas" and "Managing Multi-Generations (SEP)" To register for these classes and more, go to PDL's training calendar.

General Curriculum Report #271 General Curriculum Report #271, dated Oct. 25, 2013, is available for viewing and printing at www.uidaho.edu/registrar/ucc/reports. Items listed on this report will have the necessary faculty approvals unless a petition requesting further consideration of a specific item is signed by 5 faculty and submitted to the chair of the Faculty Senate by Nov. 8, 2013.

EagleWoman Named One of Nine Notable Women Who Rule American Indian Law

University of Idaho law professor Angelique EagleWoman was named one of "9 Notable Women Who Rule American Indian Law" in an Indian Country article for her contributions to the field of American Indian law. Read the article: http://indiancountrytodaymedianetwork.com/2013/10/23/9-notable-women-who-rule-american-indian-law-151872

In Memoriam: Rob Miller

Rob Miller, University of Idaho Industrial Hygienist, died on Monday, Oct. 21, 2013 following complications from a vehicle accident a few days earlier. Since being hired in January 2006, Rob contributed greatly to the Environmental Health and Safety Office and to the wider University community. He brought superior technical skills to his industrial hygiene work and had a strong team spirit. Rob was recognized with his colleagues on the 2006 Tower Fire Alarm Team for outstanding teamwork at the University of Idaho. Rob was very active and loved the outdoors; when not spending time with his two girls, Sarah and Emma, he was an avid golfer and fisherman. Rob was well known for being a lifelong Vandal fan! He was also an alum ('94 BS Biology and '08 MS Professional – Technical and Technology Education). Rob was truly an Idaho gem and well liked by his colleagues. He will be greatly missed by the entire Vandal community. A Life Celebration will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 26, at the Orofino Golf Course located off Highway 12 at 3430 Debertin Drive, Orofino, ID 83544. Wear Vandal gear if you want to.

In Memoriam: Carol Marlowe

Carol Marlowe, program planning and development director at University of Idaho Boise, died of complications due to bile duct cancer on Tuesday, Aug. 27, 2013. Following a 20 year career with Hewlett Packard, Carol taught strategic management, marketing, and finance in the College of Business, later returning to work full time as program director for the University of Idaho Boise. In her spare time, Carol was an avid skier and volunteer for Bishop Kelly High School where she worked in the library and helped with strategic planning. Her greatest joy was spending time with her granddaughter, Sage. As a university community we have been blessed by Carol's professional expertise, engaging personality and deep care for others. She will be greatly missed. Donations in Carol's name are being accepted at: Mountain States Tumor Institute (MSTI) Research section or Integrative Medicine Program 190 E. Bannock St. Boise, ID 83712.

Today's Register is a publication of the University of Idaho designed to share policy issues, news and events with the campus community. As the primary communication medium for official information, it is delivered to all faculty and staff via e-mail daily during the work week. This publication only prints items of university interest. Events must be sponsored by official university units or organizations. All material is subject to editing according to space, style and policy requirements.

Submit calendar items or announcements. View past editions of Today's Register here.

University Communications & Marketing I 208-885-6291 I uinews@uidaho.edu I uidaho.edu/news