TODAY'S REGISTER

Oct. 28-Nov. 3, 2013

To get earlier notices of events, the new calendar can help you. Try it: www.uidaho.edu/calendar.

NEWS:

- --Sharon and Rich Allen Ethics and Leadership Initiative Breakfast
- --UI Library Joins Worldwide GIS/CI Day Celebration
- --UI Library's Muslim Journeys Programs Highlight Muslim Cultures Worldwide
- --Fostering Food: UI's Food Technology Center is a one-stop shop for getting started selling edibles
- --Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival Seeks Volunteers for 2014 Festival
- --Anderson to Retire From UI Boise, Dillion Takes Interim Leadership
- --Creating the Perfect Sky: Architecture graduate students build artificial sky to shine on models

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- --Recruiting Faculty for Public Health Grant Proposal Development
- -- Presidential Candidate Forum: Laurie Stenberg Nichols
- -- Presidential Candidate Forum: Laurie Stenberg Nichols
- --Presidential Search Candidate Feedback
- -- Presidential Search Candidate Feedback Due. Oct. 31
- --Learn Email Netiquette With PDL

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS/KUDOS:

--Davenport Selected as NASFAA MVP

EVENTS:

- -- Today's events
- --Tomorrow's events
- --This week's events

Sharon and Rich Allen Ethics and Leadership Initiative Breakfast

The University of Idaho's College of Business and Economics is hosting the first Sharon and Rich Allen Ethics and Leadership Initiative Breakfast, featuring Mike Zychinski, chief ethics and compliance officer for Deloitte LLP Tuesday, Oct. 29 at the Boise Centre on the Grove. Read more.

UI Library Joins Worldwide GIS/CI Day Celebration

The University of Idaho Library will host the fourth annual GIS/CI Day, Wednesday, Nov. 20, on the first floor of the library from 9 a.m.–5 pm. The free event is part of a worldwide celebration to increase understanding and knowledge of geographic information systems (GIS) technology and cyberinfrastructure (CI) technology. Read more.

UI Library's Muslim Journeys Programs Highlight Muslim Cultures Worldwide

Learn more about the people, places, history, faith and cultures of Muslims around the world through a series of community-based programs sponsored by the University of Idaho Library during the fall semester. The Muslim Journeys programs are the outgrowth of a Bridging Cultures grant through the National Endowment for the Humanities and the American Library Association intended to "engage the humanities to promote understanding of and mutual respect for people with diverse histories, cultures, and perspectives within the United States and abroad." Read more.

Fostering Food: Ul's Food Technology Center is a one-stop shop for getting started selling edibles

It sounds almost too good to be true. Whether you're a chef looking to package a popular soup for sale or a home cook wanting to sell Grandma's prune-and-nut bread—or chutneys, condiments, jams or frozen burrito wraps—at a farmer's market, the University of Idaho not only helps you learn how to do it, it also has a kitchen you can use to meet state and federal safety standards. Read more.

Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival Seeks Volunteers for 2014 Festival

The Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival is recruiting volunteers for the 2014 festival. Volunteer registration opens Friday, Nov. 1. Each year, approximately 500 volunteers help manage student performance sites, transport artists and assist with general setup during the festival. The 2014 Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival will take place Feb. 19-22. Read more.

Anderson to Retire From UI Boise, Dillion Takes Interim Leadership

Trudy Anderson, associate vice president and CEO of University of Idaho Boise, has announced her retirement effective Dec. 31, 2013. "It has been a great joy and an honor to serve as a member of the University of Idaho community and to represent our institution in Boise and southern Idaho," said Trudy Anderson, University of Idaho Boise center executive officer and associate vice president. "I take pride in our accomplishments and the positive evolution of the University of Idaho Boise." Read more.

Creating the Perfect Sky: Architecture graduate students build artificial sky to shine on models

A tall, rocket-ship-shaped structure stretches into the rafters in the back corner of the University of Idaho's Art and Architecture South studio. Inside, its sloped white walls reflect the gentle glow emanating from a skylight in the top. The structure is the world's first passive artificial sky – a tool that uses natural light to accurately predict how daylight will affect the interior appearance of new buildings. Read more.

Recruiting Faculty for Public Health Grant Proposal Development

The Office of Community Partnerships works with partners on- and off-campus to seek funding that supports engaged scholarship and learning.* The subject areas we're targeting are youth education and development, public health, entrepreneurism, food security and local food systems—especially with, but not limited to, the Hispanic population in southern Idaho. These are subject areas in which UI and UI Extension has expertise and are priorities frequently identified in conversations with communities, non-profits, and government agencies throughout the state. Read more.

Presidential Candidate Forum: Laurie Stenberg Nichols

Please plan to attend the Open Forum with presidential candidate Laurie Stenberg Nichols in the Administration Building Auditorium at 9 a.m. Tuesday. For those who can't make that time, there will also be a Community Dialog and Reception in the 1912 Center at 3:30 p.m. For more information, click here: http://www.uidaho.edu/president/presidential-search/search-finalists.

Presidential Candidate Forum: Laurie Stenberg Nichols

Please plan to attend the Open Forum with presidential candidate Laurie Stenberg Nichols in the Administration Building Auditorium at 9 a.m. Tuesday.

For those who can't make that time, there will also be a Community Dialog and Reception in the 1912 Center at 3:30 p.m. For more information, click here: http://www.uidaho.edu/president/presidential-search/search-finalists.

Presidential Search Candidate Feedback

The last candidate for the Presidential Search will be presenting open forums in Moscow on Tuesday, Oct. 29, and conclude their visit around the state on Oct. 30. Please take a moment to give your feedback on all the candidates at the feedback form on the Presidential Search page at http://www.uidaho.edu/president/presidential-search/search-finalists .Feedback will be taken until 5 p.m. (PT) on Friday, Nov. 1, 2013. Thank you for taking time to participate in this very important process and provide your feedback directly to our Regents and The State Board of Education.

Presidential Search Candidate Feedback Due Oct. 31

The State Board of Education is asking for feedback on all presidential search finalists. The feedback form is located on the Presidential Search page at http://www.uidaho.edu/president/presidential-search/search-finalists. Feedback will be taken until 5 p.m. (PT) on Thursday, Oct. 31, 2013.

Learn Email Netiquette With PDL

Register for this week's highlighted course from Professional Development and Learning, "Communicating Through Email: Top 10 Dos and Don'ts." Other offerings this week include: "New Employee Welcome," "Benefits Orientation," "Dealing with Bullies in the Workplace" and "Office 365 Training Series: Outlook 2013 Advanced. Go to the PDL training portal to register for these classes.

Davenport Selected as NASFAA MVP

Dan Davenport has been selected as MVP by National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators (NASFAA). MVP or Most Valuable Professional is a series that features a brief Q&A with a different NASFAA member every couple of weeks. Professionals are nominated and selected because of their expertise in the financial aid field. www.nasfaa.org/mkt/MVP/MVP Dan Davenport.aspx

Today's Register is a publication of the University of Idaho designed to share policy issues, news and events with the campus community. As the primary communication medium for official information, it is delivered to all faculty and staff via e-mail daily during the work week. This publication only prints items of university interest. Events must be sponsored by official university units or organizations. All material is subject to editing according to space, style and policy requirements.

Submit calendar items or announcements. View past editions of Today's Register here.

University Communications & Marketing I 208-885-6291 I uinews@uidaho.edu I uidaho.edu/news