Feb. 27, 2012

EVENTS:

--CANCELLATION: Evaluating Spatial Risk to Wolf Depredation - Fish and Wildlife 501 Seminar, 11:30 a.m.

CANCELLATION: Evaluating Spatial Risk to Wolf Depredation - Fish and Wildlife 501 Seminar

This event has been canceled. It will be rescheduled at a later date. Joe Chigbrow, master's candidate in the College of Natural Resources Department of Forest, Rangeland, and Fire Sciences, will present a lecture entitled, "Evaluating Spatial Risk to Wolf Depredation" on Feb. 27 at 11:30 a.m. in CNR room 108.

Today's Register is a publication of the University of Idaho designed to share policy issues, news and events with the campus community. As the primary communication medium for official information, it is delivered to all faculty and staff via e-mail daily during the work week. This publication only prints items of University interest. Events must be sponsored by official University units or organizations. All material is subject to editing according to space, style and policy requirements.

Submit calendar items or announcements here. View past editions of Today's Register here.

University Communications & Marketing | 208-885-6291 | uinews@uidaho.edu | uidaho.edu/news

Feb. 28, 2012

NEWS:

--Sarah Grigg | Martin Scholar: Bodies Never Lie: Exploring dance as tool of international diplomacy

EVENTS:

- --Biological Sciences Departmental Seminar: Dr. Andrew Pierce, 12:30 p.m.
- --Turning of the Wheel Road Stories, 12:30 1:30 p.m.
- --Rajung Yang, Piano, 7:30 p.m.
- --Department of Theatre Arts Presents "Becky's New Car", 7:30 p.m.
- --Comedy Show with Johnny Cardinale, 8 p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

-- The New Version of Blackboard Is Here

Sarah Grigg | Martin Scholar: Bodies Never Lie: Exploring dance as tool of international diplomacy

Dance is an ancient and fluid form of expression, seamlessly engaging the body and mind. But at first glance, it may not strike the viewer as a powerful tool for international diplomacy. Sarah Grigg, a Martin Scholar in the University's Martin Institute, has begun to see dance in that light. Read more.

Biological Sciences Departmental Seminar: Dr. Andrew Pierce

The Biological Sciences Departmental Seminar, "Endocrine growth regulation in fishes," will be presented by Dr. Andrew Pierce, Columbia River Inter-Tribal Fish Commission, Tuesday, Feb. 28, at 12:30 p.m. in LSS 277.

Turning of the Wheel - Road Stories

This Humanities Exploration Colloquium talk will be presented by Sally Graves Machlis, chair and professor of art and design, and Delphine Keim-Campbell, associate professor of art and design on Feb. 28 at 12:30 - 1:30 p.m. in the Whitewater Room, Commons. Their talk is entitled, "Road Stories," and based upon their current art exhibit in the Reflections Gallery. Read more.

Rajung Yang, Piano

Faculty recital, Rajung Yang, piano, will occur Feb. 28 at 7:30 p.m. in Haddock Performance Hall.

Tickets only available at the door: $5 for adults, $3 for students and senior citizens.

Department of Theatre Arts Presents "Becky's New Car"

Becky Foster is content with her husband of 28 years, her outspoken 26-year-old son and her steady job at a car dealership. But when millionaire widower Walter Flood steps into her office looking to buy a car, or several, Becky forgets to correct him when he assumes she too is newly widowed. Balancing two relationships in a double life will test her limits in this hilariously complex comedy about finding happiness in the lives we lead. Read more.

Comedy Show with Johnny Cardinale

ASUI Vandal Entertainment presents comedian Johnny Cardinale performing in the SUB Ballroom at 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Feb 28y. Cardinale has performed in Europe, at colleges across the U.S., and even been on the Chelsea Lately Show.

The New Version of Blackboard Is Here

This is a reminder that the University of Idaho will transition to the new BbLearn course management system (CMS) at the beginning of the summer 2012 semester. While both the Blackboard CE8 and the new BbLearn systems will run concurrently through the spring 2012 semester, all courses using a CMS will be available only through the new BbLearn after May 15, 2012. The Blackboard CE8 system will be deactivated at that time. Read more.

Today's Register is a publication of the University of Idaho designed to share policy issues, news and events with the campus community. As the primary communication medium for official information, it is delivered to all faculty and staff via e-mail daily during the work week. This publication only prints items of University interest. Events must be sponsored by official University units or organizations. All material is subject to editing according to space, style and policy requirements.

Submit calendar items or announcements here. View past editions of Today's Register here.

University Communications & Marketing | 208-885-6291 | uinews@uidaho.edu | uidaho.edu/news

Feb. 29, 2012

NEWS:

- --2012 Borah Symposium Focuses on Link Between Sustainability and War
- --U-Idaho Receives $557,577 from Competitive Proposals as part of BEACON Science and Technology Center
- --Hot Buttered Popcorn and Informed Analysis

EVENTS:

- --LEAP into Professional Development
- --Dissertation Defense: Thea Lu, 9 a.m.
- --Independent Film: A Film Unfinished, 7 p.m.
- --Brian Luce, Flute, 7:30 p.m.
- --Department of Theatre Arts Presents "Becky's New Car", 7:30 p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- --New Data Management Resources Available on the U-Idaho Library Website
- --National Student Exchange Applications Due March 2
- --Women Volunteers Needed for Research on Heart Disease Risk
- -- Faculty Research Looking For Participants

2012 Borah Symposium Focuses on Link Between Sustainability and War

The University of Idaho's 2012 Borah Symposium, "Food and War: Cultivating Peace," will explore the connections between hunger, population, sustainability, war and peace. Evening keynote speakers Raj Patel and Dr. Vandana Shiva exemplify the intersection of these themes within the context of the current global food crisis. The event, scheduled for April 9-11, is free and open to the public. Read more.

U-Idaho Receives $557,577 from Competitive Proposals as part of BEACON Science and

Technology Center

University of Idaho faculty members in the Institute for Bioinformatics and Evolutionary Studies (IBEST) were awarded $557,477 for the next academic year, as part of the NSF BEACON Science and Technology Center on "Evolution in Action." These funds will support 11 U-Idaho faculty members, seven graduate students and two postdoctoral students for the next academic year. Read more.

Hot Buttered Popcorn and Informed Analysis

If teachers were trying to build a curriculum that strengthened analytical skills, developed an eye for detail, and raised students' awareness of cultural issues, their class might end up in front of the silver screen taking notes and scarfing popcorn. Read more.

LEAP into Professional Development

A one day conference for University of Idaho Employees providing professional development and learning workshops. www.uidaho.edu/staffaffairs/leap. Learn - Develop and reinforce a community of learning and creativity at the University of Idaho. Empower - Foster an environment which empowers to fully develop professional potential. Achieve - Provide opportunities and support to aspire and achieve results. Progress - Support the progress of learning and development towards the advancement of professional goals. leap@uidaho.edu

Dissertation Defense: Thea Lu

Doctoral candidate in Microbiology, Molecular Biology and Biochemistry, Thea Lu, will defend her dissertation entitled: "The Search for Fatty Acid Modifying Enzyme in Staphylococcus aureus", on Feb. 29, at 9 a.m. in Ag Science, room 62. This event is free and open to the public.

Independent Film: A Film Unfinished

ASUI Vandal Entertainment presents a free Independent Film playing in the SUB Borah Theater on Feb. 29 at 7 p.m. At the end of WWII, 60 minutes of raw film, having sat undisturbed in an East German archive, was discovered. Shot by the Nazis in Warsaw in May 1942, and labeled simply "Ghetto," this footage quickly became a resource for historians seeking an authentic record of the Warsaw Ghetto. However, the later discovery of a long-missing reel complicated earlier readings of the footage. This film is of enormous import, documenting some of the worst horrors of our time and exposing the efforts of its perpetrators to propel their agenda and cast it in a favorable light.

Brian Luce, Flute

Guest recital, Brian Luce, flute, will occur Feb. 29 at 7:30 p.m. in Haddock Performance Hall. Tickets only available at the door: $5 for adults, $3 for students and senior citizens.

Department of Theatre Arts Presents "Becky's New Car"

Becky Foster is content with her husband of 28 years, her outspoken 26-year-old son and her steady job at a car dealership. But when millionaire widower Walter Flood steps into her office looking to buy a car, or several, Becky forgets to correct him when he assumes she too is newly widowed. Balancing two relationships in a double life will test her limits in this hilariously complex comedy about finding happiness in the lives we lead. Becky's New Car shows 7:30 p.m. Feb. 28-March 3 and 2 p.m. March 4 in the U-ldaho Hartung Theater on the corner of Sixth Street and Stadium Drive. Tickets are free to U-ldaho students. U-ldahol faculty and staff, and Washington State University students are $8. General admission is $10. Tickets can be purchased at http://bit.ly/tDcLV2

New Data Management Resources Available on the U-Idaho Library Website

In support of the growing need for the management and curation of research data, the University of Idaho Library has created "Data Management Resources and Services" which provides information, links to tools and partners, and gives guidance in developing data management plans. Through these resources, library faculty and staff endeavor to build awareness about research data storage standards and protocols, metadata standards and best practices, copyright and citation concerns, and the requirements and recommendations of national funding bodies and/or professional associations. If you have any questions, please use the contact form or contact us by email at libref@uidaho.edu.

National Student Exchange Applications Due March 2

Students planning to participate in the National Student Exchange program (NSE) during the 2012-2013 academic year need to submit their completed applications to Academic Advising (TLC 231) by this Friday at 5 p.m. Don't forget to stop by Student Accounts to pay the $225 application fee first.

Women Volunteers Needed for Research on Heart Disease Risk

If you are a healthy weight or overweight woman between the ages of 20 and 39 years you may be able to take part in a study investigating heart disease in women being conducted through the Movement Sciences Department and funded through the Office of Research and Economic Development. We will provide you with free information on your blood markers (e.g., cholesterol), body composition, fitness, and daily physical activity levels. Participants will receive a gift card from TriState upon completion of the study. For more information contact Jessie Gould or Emma Goode, research assistants at goul4414@vandals.uidaho.edu or good7984@vandals.uidaho.edu or call 208.885.2007

Faculty Research Looking For Participants

Interested in participating in a research study? The WSU/U-Idaho school of food science is conducting a study to determine the health benefits of cranberry consumption in decreasing inflammation and improving glucose regulation. Participant Requirements: - Healthy - 30-70 years old - BMI: 27-35 kg/m2. For more information, please email Lindsey Kimble at lindsey_kimble@wsu.edu or call (509) 335-1164. This study has been reviewed and approved by the WSU Institutional Review Board for human subject participation.

Today's Register is a publication of the University of Idaho designed to share policy issues, news and events with the campus community. As the primary communication medium for official information, it is delivered to all faculty and staff via e-mail daily during the work week. This publication only prints items of University interest. Events must be sponsored by official University units or organizations. All material is subject to editing according to space, style and policy requirements.

Submit calendar items or announcements here. View past editions of Today's Register here.

March 1, 2012

NEWS:

- --Martin Forum Examines Unique and Universal in Geopolitics
- --Alpine Ski Team Wins at Regionals

EVENTS:

- --Dissertation Defense: YanLing Peng, 10:30 a.m.
- --Free Public Workshop on Edible and Poisonous Plants of Idaho, 11 a.m.
- --Teaching Excellence Brown Bag Series, noon
- --Savvy Skills Workshop: Keeping Current with Research, 12:30 p.m.
- --Wallace Renovation Open House, 3 5 p.m.
- --Mathematics Colloquium: Hong Wang, 3:30 p.m.
- --Student Spring Leadership Dinner with Vernon Wall, 5:30 p.m.
- --Women's Basketball: Girls and Women in Sport Night, 6 p.m.
- -- English Department Guest Speaker: Jason Miller on Langston Hughes, 7 p.m.
- --Concert Band Wind Ensemble, 7:30 p.m.
- --Astronaut-Scientist Dr. Andrew "Drew" Feustel to Visit U-Idaho, 7:30 p.m.
- --Department of Theatre Arts Presents "Becky's New Car," 7:30 p.m.
- --PechaKucha Night MOSCOW, 8 p.m.
- --Free Concert: The BGP, 8 p.m.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- --College of Engineering Dean Search Interviews
- -- Dancers Drummers Dreamers

Martin Forum Examines Unique and Universal in Geopolitics

The University of Idaho's Tuesday, March 6 Martin Forum applies the umbrella theme of "The Interplay of the Unique and the Universal," with a look at geopolitics and its inevitable conflicts. As part of the university's year-long humanities colloquium series, speaker Bill Smith examines the extent to which the countries that make up the international community can be expected to find common ground, while still maintaining their unique integrity. Read more.

Alpine Ski Team Wins at Regionals

The University of Idaho Men's Alpine Team and one member of the Women's Alpine Team qualified for national collegiate finals at the US Collegiate Ski and Snowboard Association Western Region Championship Feb. 23-25 in Steamboat Springs, Colo. Read more.

Dissertation Defense: YanLing Peng

Doctoral candidate in Mathematics, YanLing Peng, will defend her dissertation entitled, "The Chromaticity of K4-homeomorphs" on March 1 at 10:45 a.m. in BEL 205. This event is free and open to the public.

Free Public Workshop on Edible and Poisonous Plants of Idaho

Brian Elliot, managing partner of Elliott Environmental Consulting LLC and author of the "Handbook of Edible and Poisonous Plants of Western North America," will present "Edible and Poisonous Plants of Idaho" in the ethnobotany course in the College of Natural Resources, Room 10 March 1 at 11 a.m. Read more.

Teaching Excellence Brown Bag Series

The second of three teaching excellence brown bag sessions is scheduled for Thursday, March 1, from noon -1 p.m. in the Commons Clearwater Room: Wendy McClure (Architecture), "Engaging the Community for Action-Based Learning". The final session is scheduled Thursday, March 29, Commons Clearwater Room: Michael Kyte (Engineering), "Finding My Teaching Voice: One Road to Activity-Based Learning" from noon -1 p.m. Sponsored by the Teaching and Advising Committee and the Vice Provost for Academic Affairs Office.

Savvy Skills Workshop: Keeping Current with Research

In this age of information overload it can seem nearly impossible to stay current in areas of scholarly or personal interest. Learn how to harness the power of RSS feeds and email alerts to make your resources do the work for you. Once created, these alerts will deliver specific, up-to-date information to one central location, saving you both time and energy. Kathleen Monks, library liaison to the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, will present March 1 at 12:30 - 1:30 p.m. in Idaho Commons, Horizon Room.

Wallace Renovation Open House

Join University Housing as they celebrate the completion of the newly remodeled floor in Wallace Residence Center from 3 - 5 p.m. This marks the beginning of a five-year renovation project in Wallace, focused on improving the living environment for students. A formal presentation and ribbon cutting begins at 4:15 p.m.

Mathematics Colloquium: Hong Wang

Mathematics Colloquium: Hong Wang (University of Idaho) titled "Turán Number, Ramsey Number and The Regularity Lemma" will occur March 1 at 3:30 p.m. in TLC 032. Read more.

Student Spring Leadership Dinner with Vernon Wall

One Better World. Privilege. Identity. Social Justice. The journey begins with you. Come learn how your identities influence all you do and how you can use this knowledge to become agents of change on campus and in our world. Join us for dinner and a keynote presentation by Vernon Wall followed by facilitated discussion March 1 at 5:30 p.m. in the Clearwater/Whitewater Room Idaho Commons. This event is open to the first 82 students that register. To register for this event please visit the ASUI website. Contact Denise Carl at dcarl@uidaho.edu with any questions.

Women's Basketball: Girls and Women in Sport Night

When the women's basketball team takes on San Jose State tonight at 6 p.m. at the Cowan Spectrum, the University will be celebrating Girls and Women in Sport. All girls 18 and younger will be admitted without charge and the first 500 fans will receive a commemorative 'Vandal Women - PRIDE. TRADITION. EXCELLENCE.' bracelet. Additionally, the University will be honoring the achievements of our female student-athletes. There is an autograph session after the game.

English Department Guest Speaker: Jason Miller on Langston Hughes

Jason Miller, the author of Langston Hughes and American Lynching Culture, and associate professor of English at North Carolina State University, will be giving a talk, "Billie Holiday and Langston Hughes: The Strange Fruit in 'Dream Deferred,'" in the SUB Gold Room, Thursday, March 1 at 7 p.m. Miller shows how Hughes used Billie Holiday's song "Strange Fruit" and lessons learned from photography to negotiate the censorship he faced in the early 1950s. He will reveal two startling new insights into this unforgettable poem.

Concert Band Wind Ensemble

The Concert Band Wind Ensemble will perform March 1 at 7:30 p.m. in the University Auditorium. Tickets only available at the door: $5 for adults, $3 for students and senior citizens.

Astronaut-Scientist Dr. Andrew "Drew" Feustel to Visit U-Idaho

The Department of Geological Sciences and College of Science are sponsoring a public lecture by one of the few scientists who has been in space. Drew Feustel, who has been on two space shuttle missions, will be visiting Moscow on March 1. He will be giving a public talk at 7:30 pm in JEB 104, followed by an open question session.

Department of Theatre Arts Presents "Becky's New Car"

Becky Foster is content with her husband of 28 years, her outspoken 26-year-old son and her steady job at a car dealership. But when millionaire widower Walter Flood steps into her office looking to buy a car, or several, Becky forgets to correct him when he assumes she too is newly widowed. Balancing two relationships in a double life will test her limits in this hilariously complex comedy about finding happiness in the lives we lead. Becky's New Car shows 7:30 p.m. Feb. 28-March 3 and 2 p.m. March 4 in the U-Idaho Hartung Theater on the corner of Sixth Street and Stadium Drive. Tickets are free to U-ldaho students. U-ldaho faculty and staff, and Washington State University students are $8. General admission is $10. Tickets can be purchased at http://bit.ly/tDcLV2

PechaKucha Night MOSCOW

TThe College of Art & Architecture's Integrative Experience is hosting PechaKucha Night Moscow vol. 1. Thursday, March 1 at the Prichard Art Gallery in Downtown Moscow. Drawing its name from the Japanese term for the sound of "chit chat", PechaKucha is a presentation format that is based on a simple idea: 20 images x 20 seconds. It's a format that makes presentations concise, and keeps things moving at a rapid pace... just under 7 minutes each. Read more.

Free Concert: The BGP

ASUI Vandal Entertainment presents West Coast blue-eyed soul trio The BGP, performing in the SUB Ballroom at 8 p.m. on March 1.

College of Engineering Dean Search Interviews

The search advisory committee chaired by Dean of the College of Natural Resources Dr. Kurt Pregitzer announces three finalists for the dean position in the College of Engineering. Campus and center visits have been scheduled for each of the candidates. Information about the search committee, process, and finalists can be found here. Read more.

Dancers Drummers Dreamers

DancersDrummersDreamers will be performed March 22-24 at 7:30 p.m.and March 24 at 2 p.m. in the Hartung Theatre. Call the U-ldaho ticket office at (208) 885-7212 for ticket information.

Kenneth V. Noren Obituary

Kenneth V. Noren, associate professor of electrical and computer engineering, passed away on Saturday, Feb. 25, after fighting a courageous battle against cancer. Originally from Michigan, he joined the University of Idaho immediately after receiving his doctorate from Michigan State University in 1992. Ken's students and colleagues remember him as an exceptionally dedicated educator whose passion for teaching analog electronics opened their understanding to complicated concepts and encouraged them to realize greater opportunities. Read more.

Today's Register is a publication of the University of Idaho designed to share policy issues, news and events with the campus community. As the primary communication medium for official information, it is delivered to all faculty and staff via e-mail daily during the work week. This publication only prints items of University interest. Events must be sponsored by official University units or organizations. All material is subject to editing according to space, style and policy requirements.

Submit calendar items or announcements here. View past editions of Today's Register here.

Feb. 2, 2012

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

-- Flagship University

NEWS:

--Idaho's Greek System Welcomes Back Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity

EVENTS:

- --Relay for Life Social Dance, 6:30 9 p.m.
- --Zumbathon: United We Dance, 6:30 8:30 p.m.
- --Department of Theatre Arts Presents "Becky's New Car", 730 p.m. Friday and Saturday, 2 p.m. Sunday
- --Growing Your Executive Mind Training, 830 a.m. Saturday
- --Free Public Lecture on Relationship Between Humans and Plants, 9 a.m. Saturday
- --Cruise the World, 11 a.m. 5 p.m. Saturday
- --Sarah Sutter, Flute, 1 p.m. Saturday
- --Womens Basketball vs Hawai'i, 2 p.m. Saturday
- --Blockbuster Film: Hugo, 2:30, 7 p.m. Saturday
- --Jolene Pflaum, Bass Trombone and Jesse Sanchez, Trumpet, 4 p.m. Saturday
- -- Charlotte McKell, Trumpet, 730 p.m. Saturday

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- -- Landscape Design Projects
- --Kenneth V. Noren Obituary

Flagship University

Dear Faculty and Staff: A number of you have asked for an update about the University's efforts to clarify our position on the State Board of Education's decision to remove the word flagship from the university mission statement. Read more.

Idaho's Greek System Welcomes Back Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity

After a five-year absence, the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity is recruiting men to restart their chapter at the University of Idaho. "This fraternity is not new to campus, but is part of Idaho's Greek history," says Matt Kurz, Greek life advisor. "We are happy to have them back and the Phi Tau alum's are excited to have them here." Read more.

Relay for Life Social Dance

The U-ldaho Ballroom Team is holding a social dance, where all proceeds will go to The American Cancer Society through Relay for Life, on March 2 from 6:30 - 9 p.m. in PEB Gym 111. There will be a short lesson followed by two hours of dancing. Wear purple for a free raffle ticket. No partner or experience is necessary, minimum donation is $3.

Zumbathon: United We Dance

The Wellness Program at the Student Recreation Center is hosting a Zumbathon: United We Dance to Cure ALS event Friday, March 2 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the MAC at the Student Recreation Center. Minimum donation is $5 per ticket and currently are only available at the door. Also known as Lou Gehrig's Disease, ALS is a progressive motor neurone disease that robs people of the ability to move their muscles. Seventy-five percent of ticket fees from each Zumbathon® event directly benefit MDA's Augie's Quest, a nonprofit research initiative dedicated to finding treatments and cures for ALS. More information can be found at the Zumba website.

Department of Theatre Arts Presents "Becky's New Car"

Becky Foster is content with her husband of 28 years, her outspoken 26-year-old son and her steady job at a car dealership. But when millionaire widower Walter Flood steps into her office looking to buy a car, or several, Becky forgets to correct him when he assumes she too is newly widowed. Balancing two relationships in a double life will test her limits in this hilariously complex comedy about finding happiness in the lives we lead. Becky's New Car shows 7:30 p.m. Feb. 28-March 3 and 2 p.m. March 4 in the U-ldaho Hartung Theater on the corner of Sixth Street and Stadium Drive. Tickets are free to U-ldaho students. U-ldaho faculty and staff, and Washington State University students are $8. General admission is $10. Tickets can be purchased at http://bit.ly/tDcLV2

Growing Your Executive Mind Training

Stephen Krempl, the prior Chief Learning Officer of Starbucks will be training a full one day program on "Growing your Executive Mind," which Krempl says is required to succeed in the corporate world on March 3 at 8:30 a.m. in the Clearwater/Whitewater Room, Idaho Commons. If you're a college student looking for a career in the world of business, you need to understand the skills and expectations of the Fortune 500. Read more.

Free Public Lecture on Relationship Between Humans and Plants

Brian Elliot, managing partner of Elliott Environmental Consulting LLC and author of the "Handbook of Edible and Poisonous Plants of Western North America," will present a workshop for the Idaho Native Plants Society in the College of Natural Resources Room 10 on March 3 at 9 a.m. titled

Feb. 2, 2012

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

-- Flagship University

NEWS:

--Idaho's Greek System Welcomes Back Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity

EVENTS:

- --Relay for Life Social Dance, 6:30 9 p.m.
- --Zumbathon: United We Dance, 6:30 8:30 p.m.
- --Department of Theatre Arts Presents "Becky's New Car", 730 p.m. Friday and Saturday, 2 p.m. Sunday
- --Growing Your Executive Mind Training, 830 a.m. Saturday
- --Free Public Lecture on Relationship Between Humans and Plants, 9 a.m. Saturday
- --Cruise the World, 11 a.m. 5 p.m. Saturday
- --Sarah Sutter, Flute, 1 p.m. Saturday
- --Womens Basketball vs Hawai'i, 2 p.m. Saturday
- --Blockbuster Film: Hugo, 2:30, 7 p.m. Saturday
- --Jolene Pflaum, Bass Trombone and Jesse Sanchez, Trumpet, 4 p.m. Saturday
- -- Charlotte McKell, Trumpet, 730 p.m. Saturday

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- -- Landscape Design Projects
- --Kenneth V. Noren Obituary

Flagship University

Dear Faculty and Staff: A number of you have asked for an update about the University's efforts to clarify our position on the State Board of Education's decision to remove the word flagship from the university mission statement. Read more.

Idaho's Greek System Welcomes Back Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity

After a five-year absence, the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity is recruiting men to restart their chapter at the University of Idaho. "This fraternity is not new to campus, but is part of Idaho's Greek history," says Matt Kurz, Greek life advisor. "We are happy to have them back and the Phi Tau alum's are excited to have them here." Read more.

Relay for Life Social Dance

The U-ldaho Ballroom Team is holding a social dance, where all proceeds will go to The American Cancer Society through Relay for Life, on March 2 from 6:30 - 9 p.m. in PEB Gym 111. There will be a short lesson followed by two hours of dancing. Wear purple for a free raffle ticket. No partner or experience is necessary, minimum donation is $3.

Zumbathon: United We Dance

The Wellness Program at the Student Recreation Center is hosting a Zumbathon: United We Dance to Cure ALS event Friday, March 2 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the MAC at the Student Recreation Center. Minimum donation is $5 per ticket and currently are only available at the door. Also known as Lou Gehrig's Disease, ALS is a progressive motor neurone disease that robs people of the ability to move their muscles. Seventy-five percent of ticket fees from each Zumbathon® event directly benefit MDA's Augie's Quest, a nonprofit research initiative dedicated to finding treatments and cures for ALS. More information can be found at the Zumba website.

Department of Theatre Arts Presents "Becky's New Car"

Becky Foster is content with her husband of 28 years, her outspoken 26-year-old son and her steady job at a car dealership. But when millionaire widower Walter Flood steps into her office looking to buy a car, or several, Becky forgets to correct him when he assumes she too is newly widowed. Balancing two relationships in a double life will test her limits in this hilariously complex comedy about finding happiness in the lives we lead. Becky's New Car shows 7:30 p.m. Feb. 28-March 3 and 2 p.m. March 4 in the U-ldaho Hartung Theater on the corner of Sixth Street and Stadium Drive. Tickets are free to U-ldaho students. U-ldaho faculty and staff, and Washington State University students are $8. General admission is $10. Tickets can be purchased at http://bit.ly/tDcLV2

Growing Your Executive Mind Training

Stephen Krempl, the prior Chief Learning Officer of Starbucks will be training a full one day program on "Growing your Executive Mind," which Krempl says is required to succeed in the corporate world on March 3 at 8:30 a.m. in the Clearwater/Whitewater Room, Idaho Commons. If you're a college student looking for a career in the world of business, you need to understand the skills and expectations of the Fortune 500. Read more.

Free Public Lecture on Relationship Between Humans and Plants

Brian Elliot, managing partner of Elliott Environmental Consulting LLC and author of the "Handbook of Edible and Poisonous Plants of Western North America," will present a workshop for the Idaho Native Plants Society in the College of Natural Resources Room 10 on March 3 at 9 a.m. titled

"Relationships of Plants and Man Using Wild Plants." Read more.

Cruise the World

University of Idaho students, faculty and staff, and the Moscow community, will have a chance to learn about different cultures in an exciting environment. The University of Idaho's International Friendship Association will hold its annual Cruise the World event on March 3 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Student Union Building International Ballroom. Read more.

Sarah Sutter, Flute

Sarah Sutter, flute, will perform a graduate student recital with Doug Torrance, clarinet, and Elena Panchenko, piano, on March 2 at 1 p.m. in Haddock Performance Hall.

Women's Basketball vs Hawai'i

Women's Basketball vs Hawai'i will occur March 3 at 2 p.m. For tickets and information visit www.govandals.com or call 208-885-6466.

Blockbuster Film: Hugo

ASUI Vandal Entertainment presents free showings at 2:30 and 7 p.m. in the SUB Borah Theater on March 3. Hugo: An orphaned boy secretly lives in the walls of a busy Paris train station and looks after the clocks. He gets caught up in a mystery adventure when he attempts to repair a mechanical man.

Jolene Pflaum, Bass Trombone and Jesse Sanchez, Trumpet

Jolene Pflaum, bass trombone and Jesse Sanchez, trumpet, will perform a student recital with Victoria Casteel, piano, and Melody Potratz, piano, on March 3 at 4 p.m. in Haddock Performance Hall.

Charlotte McKell, Trumpet

Charlotte McKell, trumpet, will perform a student recital with Ali Jones, piano, on March 3 at 7:30 p.m. in Haddock Performance Hall..

Landscape Design Projects

Landscape Architecture students are available to complete designs for personal homes or businesses. Cost is $125. Space is limited for spring projects. First come, first served. Contact larch@uidaho.edu.

Kenneth V. Noren Obituary

Kenneth V. Noren, associate professor of electrical and computer engineering, passed away on Saturday, Feb. 25, after fighting a courageous battle against cancer. A celebration of Ken's life will be held Thursday, March 8, starting at 5:30 p.m. The celebration will be held at the Schweitzer Event Center which is located at 1825 Schweitzer Drive, Pullman, Wash. Read more.

Today's Register is a publication of the University of Idaho designed to share policy issues, news and events with the campus community. As the primary communication medium for official information, it is delivered to all faculty and staff via e-mail daily during the work week. This publication only prints items of University interest. Events must be sponsored by official University units or organizations. All material is subject to editing according to space, style and policy requirements.

Submit calendar items or announcements here. View past editions of Today's Register here.

University Communications & Marketing | 208-885-6291 | uinews@uidaho.edu | uidaho.edu/news