

This website is designed to walk you through the steps to select courses and become a registered student. Please take the time to read the information we have provided and listen to our audio files for additional assistance. Before you begin this process make it easier by opening a second window in your browser. Although the information is lengthy, with a little patience, you will learn how to select and register for classes.