

Idaho Repertory Theatre is pleased to announce a unique summer line up of events:

Happy (staged reading) | June 27 | 7 pm wine reception | 7:30 pm curtain | Kenworthy Theatre | one night only
 Named one of the best comedies in Chicago and nominated for two awards by the San Francisco Bay Area Theatre critic's Circle. Described as "edgy entertainment" by The New York Times, and a "truly excellent new play" by KRCB, Happy was written by University of Idaho professor Robert Caisley.

The Lion in Winter (staged reading) | July 12 | 6:30 pm wine & appetizer reception | 7:30 pm curtain
 Meadowwinds Castle | one night only.
 Praised as "intellectually delicious," by New York magazine, this script depicts twelfth century family dysfunction in the court of King Henry II. Full of sharp and witty dialogue, this play is being considered for full production in 2015. Please help us decide by attending this staged reading.

Encore! Musical Cabaret | July 25 | 7 pm wine reception | 7:30 pm curtain | 1912 Center | one night only
 An evening of food, wine and song.

Tomato Plant Girl | a fully staged production for youth | July 10, 11, 12, 24, 25, 26, 31, August 1, 2 | 7:00 pm
 Hartung Outdoor Theater
 A high energy exploration of young friendship that is playful and especially meaningful for youthful audiences. Bring a picnic, your family and friends!
