

PART III: Academic Information

Reenrollment must be approved by the department in whose degree program returning graduate students wish to enroll. Students who have completed one degree and wish to enroll in further courses must file a Change of Curriculum form with College of Graduate Studies with all the appropriate departmental approvals. Returning students who have not enrolled within two years of the term in which they wish to register must file an Application for Reenrollment with the Graduate Admissions Office in addition to the Change of Curriculum form mentioned above.

PART IV: Academic History

If you are planning on using credits earned at a previous institution towards a University of Idaho degree, please submit official transcripts to the College of Graduate Studies. To be considered official, transcripts must be mailed directly from the institution to the College of Graduate Studies. (Fax or photocopies of records are not considered official.)
