The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services regulations require that every international student verify the availability of funds to pay for educational and living expenses before an I-20 or DS-2019 form to obtain a visa to enter the U.S. can be issued. Complete and return this form to the appropriate Admissions Office regardless of your source(s) of funding.

Family First Middle Maiden/Former Name

I verify that I have resources available to meet the tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, and personal and health expenses. I understand that the costs listed below are estimates and are subject to change without notice. Falsification of my financial status in order to obtain a Certificate of Eligibility (I-20/DS-2019) is a violation of United States law and may subject me to revocation of my visa. I understand that UI may verify the authenticity with the issuing institution of any documentation that I provide. I permit UI to release information to third parties about my application or financial records if misrepresentation is suspected or confirmed.

Reminders:

- Spouses with F-2 visa status are not permitted to work under any circumstances. Spouses may apply for work permission only if they have J-2 visa status.

- You are responsible for all costs. Students are ultimately responsible for securing all financial resources. In the event that a private sponsor, government agency or other funding source is delinquent with financial support, the student is held responsible. Registration may be blocked and housing contracts, transcripts, diplomas, and I-20s or DS-2019s are not issued for individuals who owe money to the University of Idaho.

- To get a visa and/or enter the U.S. Keep copies of all documents you submit as evidence of financial responsibility because you may need to present that documentation to the U.S. Embassy or Consulate official when you apply for your visa. An immigration official may also require documentation when you enter the U.S. It is wise to include documentation of your financial plan for the full length of your academic program.
