Thoughts on rearrangement/update of Honors Lounge:

> Dividing Wall= 'scrapbook of UHP'

- Pictures of students, activities, etc (will contact UHP for materials)

- Fabric covered?

- Where in the world are Honors Students? (attach faces to locations on a world map)

- Display student's artwork (ex: Avery's graphic design)

> Display National Geographics in more appealing way

> Paint another wall? (Commons director may say no)

> Whiteboard= calendar

- Who would be responsible for updating?

> Corkboard= more relevant UHP items (class list, important events)

> Decorate room with origami- (too distracting?)

> Inspirational quote on a wall

- Alumni Quote? (<http://www.uidaho.edu/honors/people/alumni/quotes>)

- Quote of month/week? Or a permanent quote?

> Microwave and mini-fridge

- Who would be responsible for cleaning?

> Matching furniture?

> Study nooks

Advertising the lounge

In UHP main office: "What we like about the honors program"

* Honors Semi-formal; Kelly Deobald

SUB- Ballroom (Rented to students for free on weekdays, $$ on weekends)

Will need to charge cover fee to students

Fri/Sat work better? What days? (Oct 19/20)

Shevin/Connor as DJ/MC? For sound system?

Theme, decorations?

* Interest survey

To be done before HSAB retreat

To facilitate retreat brainstorming

Survey format?

> How many honors events would you be interested in? What type?

* Make a Difference Day, Paint the Palouse

> What do you see the role of the honors program as?

> What would you like to see change in college life in general?

> What honors classes would you like to see?

> Laundry list of interests

> Would you be interested in Honors Shirts?

- pay individually or fundraise?

> Other comments'
