Appellate Court Opinions in Law-Developing Cases, by General Topic

(Selected from approximately 520 Court of Appeals opinions, authored from 1982 to 1990. Information is available by separate document to show the subsequent review and history of some cases, as well as to show the numbers of citations to these opinions in other court decisions and scholarly or professional publications.)

Appellate Review: Scope and Standards

Associates Northwest v. Beets, 112 Idaho 603, 733 P.2d 824 (Ct. App. 1987). Sets forth three-tiered standard for appellate review of discretionary decisions.

Avondale on Hayden. Inc. v. Hall, 104 Idaho 321, 658 P.2d 992 (Ct. App. 1983). Articulates standard for review of factual findings on documentary evidence and for review of rulings on motions for relief from default judgment.

Sheets v. Agro-West, 104 Idaho 880, 887, 664 P.2d 787, 794 (Ct. App. 1983) (concurring opinion joined by other members of Court). Explains need for judges to state reasons for discretionary decisions, and articulates distinction between "adjudicative" and "management" discretion.

State v. Urquhart, 105 Idaho 92, 665 P.2d 1102 (Ct. App. 1983). Enunciates standard for review of denial of defendant's motion for mistrial in a criminal case.

Business Organizations

Waters v. Double L, Inc., 114 Idaho 256, 755 P.2d 1294 (Ct. App. 1988), aff'd as modified, 115 Idaho 705, 769 P.2d 582 (1989). Analyzes right of dissenting corporate shareholders and procedures by which corporation must respond.

Civil Procedure

Aldape v. Akins, 105 Idaho 254, 668 P.2d 130 (Ct. App. 1983). Adopts modern version of res judicata in the form of claim preclusion.

Donaldson v. Donaldson, 111 Idaho 951, 729 P.2d 426 (Ct. App. 1986). Explains interrelationship of rules and case law governing personal jurisdiction over nonresident defendant in divorce case.

Glengary-Gamlin v. Bird, 106 Idaho 84, 675 P.2d 344 (Ct. App. 1983). Sets forth criteria of organizational standing to challenge administrative agency decisions.

Keese v. Fetzek, 106 Idaho 507, 681 P.2d 600 (Ct. App. 1984). Abolishes "election of remedies" doctrine in Idaho, except insofar as waiver or estoppel may be shown.

Roll v. City of Middleton, 115 Idaho 833, 771 P.2d 54 (Ct. App. 1989). Analyzes right to new trial for jury misconduct and prescribes standard for evaluating prejudice.

Commercial Transactions and Contracts

Brown v. Yacht Club, 111 Idaho 195, 722 P.2d 1062 (Ct. App. 1986). Discusses meaning of "cloud on title" under warranty deed; articulates "expectation," "reliance" and "restitution" interests in contracts.

CIT Financial Services v. Herb's Indoor RV Center, 118 Idaho 185, 189, 795 P.2d 890, 894 (Ct. App. 1990) (dissenting opinion). Discusses commercial reasonableness and transfer of collateral under Article 9 of Uniform Code.

Hammon v. Farmers Insurance Group, 107 Idaho 770, 692 P.2d 1202 (Ct. App. 1984). Discusses uninsured motorist coverage for accident caused by swerving to avoid unidentified driver.

Hershey v. Simpson, 111 Idaho 491, 725 P.2d 196 (Ct. App. 1986). Defines “procedural unconscionability” and “substantive unconscionability” of contracts.

Rockwell Int’l Credit Corp. v. Valley Bank, 109 Idaho 406, 707 P.2d 517 (Ct. App. 1985). Synthesizes provisions of Article 9, Uniform Commercial Code, relating to loss of perfection, and re-perfection, of security interests.

Unigard Insurance Co. v. U.S. Fidelity & Guaranty Insurance Co., 111 Idaho 891, 728 P.2d 780 (Ct. App. 1986). Defines single “occurrence” under liability insurance policy.

Criminal Law (Substantive Law and Sentencing)

State v. Eubank, 114 Idaho 635, 759 P.2d 926 (Ct. App. 1988). Sets forth standards governing fixed life sentences in light of Idaho’s Unified Sentencing Act.

State v. Gilman, 105 Idaho 891, 673 P.2d 1085 (Ct. App. 1983). Discusses due process requirements governing jury instructions on lesser included offenses.

State v. Knoll, 110 Idaho 678, 718 P.2d 589 (Ct. App. 1986). Sets forth alternative permissible methods of proving DUI charges.

State v. Mata, 106 Idaho 184, 677 P.2d 497 (Ct. App. 1984). Analyzes subjective and objective tests of entrapment.

State v. McDougall, 113 Idaho 900, 905, 749 P.2d 1025, 1030 (Ct. App. 1988). Special concurring opinion invites “renewed scholarly attention” to issue of whether mens rea requirement embraces more than mere intention to do a particular act.

State v. Olin, 111 Idaho 516, 725 P.2d 801 (Ct. App. 1987), aff’d on other grounds, 735 P.2d 984 (Idaho 1987). Extensive discussion by all three Court of Appeals judges, expressing different views regarding the relationship between, and proof of, the elements of burglary and the elements of larceny.

State v. Stiffler, 114 Idaho 935, 938, 763 P.2d 308, 311 (dissenting opinion). Addresses mens rea issue in context of “statutory” rape.

State v. Sanchez, 115 Idaho 776, 769 P.2d 1148 (Ct. App. 1989). Articulates standards of appellate review of sentences in light of Idaho Uniform Sentencing Act.

State v. Toohill, 103 Idaho 565, 650 P.2d 707 (Ct. App. 1982). Sets forth standards for reviewing indeterminate sentences, refusals to retain jurisdiction over criminal sentences, and objections to presentence investigation reports.

Wilson v. State, 113 Idaho 563, 746 P.2d 1022 (Ct. App. 1987). Discusses prison sanitation in light of “cruel and unusual punishment” clause of Eighth Amendment.

Criminal Procedure

Smith v. State, 115 Idaho 808, 770 P.2d 817 (Ct. App. 1989). Defines “refusal” to take blood-alcohol test under DUI statutes, and prescribes conditions under which initial refusal may be retracted.

State v. Curtis, 106 Idaho 483, 680 P.2d 1383 (Ct. App. 1984). Contains constitutional analysis of “implied consent” law, requiring submission to test of blood-alcohol content.

State v. Lawrence, 112 Idaho 149, 730 P.2d 1069 (Ct. App. 1986). Sets forth standards for granting new trial upon recanted testimony, for admission of expert testimony on delay in reporting of child abuse, and for admissibility of evidence of defendant’s prior “good” acts in a criminal prosecution.

State v. Leatherwood, 104 Idaho 100, 656 P.2d 760 (Ct. App. 1982). Articulates requirements of due process in criminal case where evidence has been lost or destroyed. Sets forth unified test materiality of such evidence.

State v. Lopez, 107 Idaho 726, 692 P.2d 370 (Ct. App. 1984). Elaborates constitutional requirement that jury in criminal case constitute “fair cross section” of community.

State v. Moulds, 105 Idaho 880, 673 P.2d 1074 (Ct. App. 1983). Sets forth standards governing police responses to equivocal invocations of Miranda rights.

State v. Rusho, 110 Idaho 556, 716 P.2d 1328 (Ct. App. 1986). Sets forth constitutional limitation upon search of home, following report of intruder, where homeowner objects.

State v. Schaffer, 107 Idaho 812, 693 P.2d 458 (Ct. App. 1984). Addresses constitutional issues relating to seizure of person during search of premises, finding of probable cause upon false information in affidavit for warrant, and “good faith” exception to exclusionary rule.

State v. Thompson, 113 Idaho 466, 745 P.2d 1087 (Ct. App. 1987). Upholds use of pen register without a warrant under existing case law, but urges Idaho Supreme Court to hold that warrantless use of pen registers is contrary to state constitution.

State v. Wren, 115 Idaho 618, 768 P.2d 1351 (Ct. App. 1989). Explains “exigent circumstances” exception to warrant requirement in context of “hot pursuit.”

Evidence

Johnson v. Emerson, 103 Idaho 350, 647 P.2d 806 (Ct. App. 1982). Examines use of motion in limine to exclude evidence of prior accidents and sets forth rule regarding timeliness of objections to arguments by counsel.

State v. Palin, 106 Idaho 70, 675 P.2d 49 (Ct. App. 1983). Interprets Idaho “rape shield” statute with respect to past sexual conduct of sex crime victim; articulates unified test of harmless error on constitutional and nonconstitutional issues.

State v. Pierce, 107 Idaho 96, 685 P.2d 837 (Ct. App. 1984). Elaborates case law and Idaho rule of evidence regarding impeachment of witness with prior felony.

Family Law

Brazier v. Brazier, 111 Idaho 692, 726 P.2d 1143 (Ct. App. 1986). Authorizes divorce courts to include future adjustments of child support in divorce decrees.

Stockdale v. Stockdale, 102 Idaho 870, 643 P.2d 82 (Ct. App. 1982). States Idaho law regarding informal transmutation of community or separate property.

Property

Bob Daniels & Sons v. Weaver, 106 Idaho 535, 681 P.2d 1010 (Ct. App. 1984). States Idaho law regarding easements by necessity.

Fahrenwald v. LaBonte, 103 Idaho 751, 653 P.2d 806 (Ct. App. 1982). Articulates law relating to unreasonable withholding of consent to assignment or sublease of rented premises.

MacCaskill v. Ebbert, 112 Idaho 1115, 739 P.2d 414 (Ct. App. 1987). Establishes applicability of easement by necessity where property is physically “landlocked” rather than legally “landlocked”.

Norwood v. Stevens, 104 Idaho 44, 655 P.2d 938 (Ct. App. 1982). Establishes law governing boundary by agreement where true boundary line is unknown, albeit undisputed.

Quintana v. Anthony, 109 Idaho 977, 712 P.2d 678 (Ct. App. 1985). Analyzes connection between mortgage foreclosure statutes and vendors’ liens.

Torts

Carpenter v. Double R. Cattle Co., Inc., 105 Idaho 320, 669 P.2d 643 (Ct. App. 1983). Adopts and discusses test of nuisance liability under Restatement (Second) of Torts, based largely upon law-and-economics economics analysis.

Earl v. Cryovac, 115 Idaho 1087, 772 P.2d 725 (Ct. App. 1989). Sets forth standard of proof of causation in toxic tort case.

Fouche v. Chrysler Motors Corp., 103 Idaho 249, 646 P.2d 1020 (Ct. App. 1982). Enunciates elements of plaintiff’s burden of proof in “crashworthiness” product liability suit.

Keller v. Holiday Inns, Inc., 105 Idaho 649, 671 P.2d 1112 (Ct. App. 1983). Discusses liability of landlord to employee’s tenant injured by dangerous appliance on premises.

Smith v. King Creek Grazing Ass’n, 105 Idaho 644, 671 P.2d 1107 (Ct. App. 1983). Sets forth Idaho law governing liability for flow of surface water and articulates “civil law” rule with watercourse exception.

Wills and Trusts

Estate of McGurrin, 113 Idaho 341, 743 P.2d 994 (Ct. App. 1987). Case of national first impression, dealing with “witness” requirement for execution of will under Uniform Probate Code.
