program information

The University of Idaho Outdoor Program is a nonprofit service organization providing the university community with education and resources for wilderness-based, human-powered, environmentally sound activities. We promote teamwork, leadership and growth through outdoor adventure experiences.

The Outdoor Program offers a wide variety of service and activities to the University community:

INSTRUCTIONAL TRIPS RENTAL EQUIPMENT RESOURCE MATERIAL

COOPERATIVE TRIPS OUTDOOR INFORMATION TRIP PLANNING ASSISTANCE

Cooperative trips are cost sharing. Participants supply their own food and own personal equipment through rental or purchase. Required pre-trip meetings are held to work out trip details. Listed fees are for transportation. group gear and instruction (if provided).

how to participate

Registration for trips is taken in person at the Outdoor Program office located in the Student Recreation Center. Each posted trip sheet lists specific information for that trip. Required pre-trip planning meetings are also indicated. Transportation and group equipment costs will be charged upon sign-up. Fees are non-refundable. Non-University of Idaho students may be charged an additional fee, which will be listed on sign-up sheets. Other activities are free or will have costs listed.

for more information

Sign-up for trips and classes begin on August 26 at the Outdoor Program office in the Student Recreation Center. Fees are due at sign-up and are non-refundable. Pre-trip meetings are held in the SRC.
