Course Introduction

The class covers basic vocabulary and grammar points and develops reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills. Fren 101 covers units 1 through 6 of the Promenades vText. Your instructor is here to help you progress to your full potential in French, so please feel free to contact him at any time to discuss problems or difficulties you may be experiencing in the course.

This is a distance-learning course wherein students actively participate in their own learning process outside the classroom in an online environment and study time is dedicated to activities that incorporate vocabulary, pronunciation, grammar, and culture points. Students must approach this course with a real desire to put in the time demanded. Fren 101 covers a lot of material and will require a substantial time commitment to read, study the grammar lessons and tutorials, and do the online required assignments. By the end of the course, however, you will be ready for Fren 102 and will have gained an invaluable opportunity to practice written communication, listening, and reading comprehension in French.

Course Objectives

By the completion of French 101, students should be able to do the following:

- Communicate in basic French. Students will be able to greet and take leave of others, discuss their courses and class schedules, their family, the pastimes and sports they enjoy, and also talk about the weather. Students should feel comfortable in the present tense and will begin to speak in and understand the past tense (passé composé).
- Create original thoughts in French. Students will gain knowledge of the structure of French and will therefore be able to use the vocabulary learned to form new thoughts and basic sentences.
- Gain a greater understanding of and appreciation for French culture, particularly in terms of geography, demography, and the vast differences in culture that are present throughout the francophone world.

Lessons (Leçons)

Each lesson in your ISI Course Guide includes:

- Lesson Objectives
Material to Cover
Active Vocabulary
Lecture and Required Activity (Deviors)
Online Promenades Supersite assignments to be submitted electronically

The Promenades vText is divided into 13 units. You will be studying the first six units in Fren 101. Each unit (unité) is divided into two lessons, called Leçon A and Leçon B. Each leçon in a unit contains six main sections: Contextes, Roman-Photo (Video), Lecture Culturelle, Structures, and Synthèse. The second leçon in each unit concludes with a sixth section called Savoir-faire. Under the Savoir-faire section, you will be able to access the Vocabulaire screen, which presents all of the unit’s active vocabulary. All of your assigned exercises are available online in the Promenades activities screen on the Promenades Supersite.

This Course Guide will direct you through these sections so that you will be well prepared for the proctored exam that follows each unit.

Study Hints
- Carefully read and follow all the instructions and suggestions found in this Course Guide.
- When directed to do so, refer to the appropriate pages of your Promenades vText before attempting to submit assigned exercises.
- As you begin each new lesson, your instructor recommends that you first study the active vocabulary listed in the Vocabulaire section on the Promenades Supersite at the end of each Unité in your Promenades vText.
- Note: The Structures sections of each lesson presents two grammar points. Before submitting the assigned grammar exercises, you will be directed to access an online tutorial explaining the grammar point you are being asked to practice.
- Set a schedule allowing for completion of the course one month prior to your desired deadline. (An Assignment Submission Log is provided for this purpose.)
- Review earlier material by frequently practicing the exercises and vocabulary you have successfully done in previous lessons.
- REMEMBER: For each section of the text that is covered, only certain exercises have been assigned for you to submit to your instructor. Only those exercises showing a due date of “Tue 06/30” are your assigned exercises. For extra practice on sections that you find challenging, remember that you will find more communicative exercises in the vText to help you increase your understanding and ability. Don’t feel limited to doing only the assigned exercises.
- Web pages and URL links in the World Wide Web are subject to change. If you cannot access a link that has been listed in this course guide, use your favorite search engine (such as Google) to locate the site. To seek assistance or provide any updated information, contact your instructor.

Submitting Assignments

When you have completed a lesson (for example, Leçon 1A) and have submitted all the required activities and exercises (only those exercises showing the due date “Tue 06/30”), double-check to make sure that you have done all of the exercises requested for that lesson. Then, email your instructor that you have completed the lesson and have submitted all of the required exercises. After you have completed the assigned exercises in Lessons A and B of a specific Unit and have received feedback from your instructor on both lessons, you may then make arrangements with your proctor to take the exam for that Unit.

Refer to the Course Rules in BbLearn for further details on assignment requirements and submission.

Exams
You must wait for grades and comments on lessons prior to taking each subsequent exam.

For your instructor’s exam guidelines, refer to your Registration Confirmation Email and the Exam Information sections in this Course Guide.

See Grading for specific information on lesson/exam points and percentages.

Proctor Selection/Scheduling Exams

All exams require a proctor.

To submit your Proctor Information Form online, visit the ISI website and select Forms, Proctor Information Form. Submit this form at least two weeks before your first exam. Refer to About ISI Policies on the ISI website for information on acceptable and unacceptable proctors.

Grading

The course grade will be based upon the following considerations:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Graded Assignments (Devoirs): 12 lessons</th>
<th>40%</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Unit Exams: 6 exams</td>
<td>60%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A final average of:

- 90% to 100% = A
- 80% to 89% = B
- 70% to 79% = C
- 60% to 69% = D
- 0% to 59% = F

The final course grade is issued after all lessons and exams have been graded.

Acts of academic dishonesty, including cheating or plagiarism, are considered a very serious transgression and may result in a grade of F for the course.

Getting Started

If you still need to enroll in the online Promenades Supersite portion of this course, see Online Course Delivery (How to Begin Your Online Course) on page 2 of this Course Guide, or refer to your Registration Confirmation Email. If you have any questions about the course, please contact your instructor.

Once you have enrolled in your online Promenades Supersite course, you are ready to begin Lesson (Leçon) 1A.

- Log on to the Promenades Supersite at http://www.vhlcentral.com/. You can access this Website directly through an Internet browser or through a link on BbLearn. (For information on how to access BbLearn, see your Registration Confirmation Email.)
- Enter your username and password in the LOGIN area on the right side of the screen.
- Click on the Promenades icon to access your Supersite course. The upper right side of your screen now displays 5 sections: Course/Content/Calendar/Grades/Communication. You are presently on your Course screen. Although it is possible to access your assigned exercises from this screen, I recommend that you always do the following procedure:
  o Click on the Content tab, which is immediately to the right of the Course tab; then click on the Activities tab that appears just under the Content tab.
  o The Activities screen is the screen you will use most frequently. In the upper right portion of your screen you will see 3 icons that display the titles of your first 3 units. You will notice that Leçon 1A is presently highlighted.

The left side of your screen lists the lesson’s 6 sections: Contextes (Ça va? / Les son et les lettres), Roman-Photo, Lecture Culturelle, Flash Culture, Structures, and Synthèse (Révision / Le Zapping). Since you will encounter the same 6 sections in future lessons, it is important to know what each section presents:

- In Contextes, the focus or theme of the lesson is presented, and new vocabulary is presented.
- Les Sons et Les Lettres is a section dedicated to bettering your pronunciation and spelling in French.
- The Roman-Photo section presents a summary of the specific video episode that you will watch on your computer.
- In the Lecture Culturelle section, your text will present cultural/historical material relating to the lesson’s theme.
- The Flash Culture section contains a short cultural video focusing on different cultural activities related to the varied francophone regions of the world.
- The Structures section of each leçon presents two grammar points followed by appropriate grammar exercises.
- The Synthèse section presents a more open-ended review of the material covered.
- The Savoir-Faire section only appears in the 2nd lesson of each Unit. It is here where you can access the Vocabulaire tab that presents a complete compilation of all the new vocabulary introduced in the Unit.

NOTE: As you begin each new lesson, you will be directed to first study the active vocabulary listed in the Vocabulaire section on the Promenades Supersite.
The right side of your Activities screen lists the specific exercises you are to submit for your assignment. Although there are other details concerning how to efficiently navigate this Supersite platform, I believe you are relatively well prepared to dive into lesson 1A. However, for those who wish to learn more thoroughly how to navigate this platform before beginning your first lesson, please do the following:

- On the very top right section of your screen, click on the Help tab.
- Next, click on the Student User Guide tab.
- Download this tab and read through the very helpful information this user guide provides.

NOW LET'S BEGIN!

Lesson Objectives

Bienvenu/e à Français 101! Welcome to French 101! This is the first of the six units you will cover in this course. In Unit (Unité) 1, you will learn how to greet and say goodbye in French, identify and describe yourself and others, and identify objects in the classroom. You will learn about nouns and gender, articles, the numbers 0–60, subject pronouns, the present tense forms of the verb “être” (to be), and finally, adjective agreement.

Material to Cover

Promenades vText, pages 1–40
Promenades Supersite, Unité 1 (online assignments at http://promenades.vhlcentral.com)

Active Vocabulary

Promenades vText:

- pages 2-3, Ça va?
- pages 20-21, En classe
- page 40, Vocabulaire

Lecture and Required Activity (Devoirs)

All assigned exercises are online through the Promenades Supersite.

Log on to the Promenades Supersite at http://www.vhlcentral.com and enter your username and password. Now, click on the Promenades icon; then click on the Content tab. This brings up 4 options; click on the vText option.

Notice the Contents tab is now at the upper left of your screen; click on this tab. This will display your vText’s table of contents.

Click on the Leçon 1B tab; then, scroll down and click on the p. 40 Vocabulaire tab.

Adjust your screen size appropriately to 100% or 125% so that you can read the text. Notice that you can click on the tab immediately to the left of the screen size tab to go from a double page to single page screen.

Page 40 presents all of the active vocabulary you should know for Unit 1. By clicking on the individual words and expressions, you will hear the native pronunciation for each word. Familiarize yourself as much as possible with the vocabulary presented on this page.
After having reviewed the words on this page, it is a good practice to click on the S tab (Audio: Vocabulary Flashcards) at the upper left of your screen to practice the vocabulary some more. Once you feel comfortable with the active vocabulary presented on page 40 of your vText, you are ready to begin practicing the various greetings and farewells presented in the Contextes section of Leçon 1A.

Focus on Leçon 1A

Contextes

To access the greetings and farewells found in the Contextes section of Leçon 1A, make sure you have left the vText screen and have returned to the Activities screen.

You should now be on Leçon 1A’s Activities screen.

Under the Presentations and Tutorials section click on the Vocabulary presentation: Ça va? tab. Displayed on your screen you will see an illustration of six sets of people greeting each other. If you click on the Show Text tab that is located on the upper left portion of your screen, you will see the written transcript to each greeting when you click on the various button tabs. Notice also that below each transcript is a small double-edged arrow. If you click on the arrow the English translation will appear.

In the six short conversations presented in this section you will discover that French has two ways of addressing people: formal (vous) and informal (tu). You will learn more about these forms as you move through the lessons, but for now you should know that one form (vous) is used during formal situations (when addressing someone you don’t know, someone who is older, or someone to whom you want to show respect) as well as when you’re addressing more than one person. The other form (tu) is used during informal situations, such as talking to a peer or close acquaintance.

Once you have listened to the conversations, you can exit this screen by clicking on the Return to Activities tab located at the bottom right of your illustration.

Make sure that you are on the Activities screen and that the Contextes: Ça va? tab is highlighted. You are now ready to submit your assigned exercises for this section.
