

Mario ReyesDean and Professor of Finance, University of Idaho College of Business and Economics

Mario G. Reyes retired as dean of the College of Business and Economics professor of finance at the University of Idaho in 2016. He was with the University of Idaho in various capacities since 1985. Before his appointment as dean in May 2012, Mario served as the interim dean. He also served as the associate dean of the College of Business and Economics from 2006 to 2011. Mario chaired the A. D. and J. E. Davis Student Investment Fund. Before moving to Idaho, he was technical assistant to the president and accounting/finance manager for the E. M. Cojuangco Group of Companies. Mario has received several teaching awards, including the First Interstate Bank of Excellence in Teaching and the University of Idaho Award for Teaching Excellence. His teaching and research focus on the econometric analysis of financial markets, portfolio management, and financial strategy. Mario earned his bachelor degree in accounting from De La Salle University in Manila (Philippines), his MBA from the University of New Orleans, and his PhD from the Sam Walton College of Business at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville.