

Idaho 4-H Leadership Retreat

Idaho 4-H Teen Association

July 11-13, 2014 - McCall, Idaho

The Idaho 4-H Leadership Retreat focuses on teen leadership, living with purpose and service, as well as unifying the 4-H organization on the district and state levels through a series of team building activities, workshops, speakers and projects. Plus, there is plenty of time for fun!

The retreat is held at the University of Idaho MOSS Camp and is available to Idaho 4-Hers who are 13 to 18 years of age.

Testimonials:

"I learned that we don't have to be the stereotypical definition of the word teenager. We can use our leadership skills to impact others and a difference."

"I learned that everything we do matters, so in a sense we need to step up and take action."

"The thing that I really liked was the combination of learning and seriousness, but still having fun."
