new student orientation

Welcome, we're so glad you're here!

Dear Vandal Parents,

Welcome to the University of Idaho!

Thank you for participating in Parent Orientation. Parent orientation will provide you with information that will enable you to be capable mentors to your Vandals. We are eager to partner with you and your student on this exciting educational endeavor.

Opening weekend will be electrifying and challenging; it is the beginning of the next stage of life for your Vandal and your family. We stand ready to provide assistance throughout the University of Idaho experience for both you and your student.

You can stay in contact with the University of Idaho by using one of the following options:

- Visit the UI Parents Website at www.uidaho.edu/parents to gather information and subscribe to the parents newsletter.
- Use the e-mail address askjoe@uidaho.edu to ask questions you may have.
- Call the Dean of Students Office at 208-885-6757 if you have pressing concerns that may require staff attention.

We understand that this is a significant change for you and your family. We also understand that this is also a substantial investment of time and family resources. We are deeply committed to helping your Vandal navigate the challenges ahead and look forward to partnering with you so that your students academic and personal goals are achieved.

We hope that you have a wonderful experience with the University of Idaho.

Go Vandals!

Sincerely,

Blaine T. Eckles, Ph.D.
Dean of Students

Financial Matters

TLC 040

Dan Davenport, Director, Student Financial Aid & Delora Shoop, Manager, Student Accounts/Cashiers

Bring all of your questions about student and parent loans, student employment, grants and scholarships, filling out financial aid forms, and financial aid in general.

Life on Campus

TLC 047

Blaine Eckles, Dean of Students

This session focuses on some of the most common challenges that new college students face, and how you can help your student make a smooth and successful transition to life as a college student.

Student Wellness

TLC 041

Martha Kitzrow, Licensed Psychologist, Counseling & Testing Center

We as a University are looking to serve both body and mind. This session discusses a wide array of UI services, including the Counseling and Testing Center (personal counseling and stress management) and the Student Rec Center (physical wellbeing).

Letting Go...Change

TLC 044

Joan Pulakos, Director, Counseling & Testing Center

This is an exciting time for you and your family, as you leave your student in Moscow to become an independent adult. This session will involve discussion about the changes happening in your family and in your student.

Residence Hall Living

TLC 029

Dee Dee Kanikkeberg, Director, University Housing

Living within a large community can be a big adjustment for many students. Take this opportunity to find out more about the Residence Hall communities and the opportunities for growth and leadership development that are available.

Student Health Insurance Program (SHIP) & Student Health Services

TLC 030

Lori Krasselt, Student Benefits & Jeff Geier, Administrator, Moscow Family Medicine

Learn important details of SHIP coverage benefits, and the health insurance requirement for all students. Also learn about the services provided at our Student Health Clinic and how students can access medical care in the Moscow area.

Academic Success

TLC 045

Rochelle Smith, Reference Librarian, Library; Ali Bretthauer, Manager, Tutoring & College Success

This session will provide information about academic support services and library resources and services available to all students, on campus and off. Come learn strategies to help promote your student's academic success.

Academic Advising

TLC 046

Andrew Brewick, Director, Academic Advising

Understanding the Academic Advising system can be helpful in order to assist your student with important decision making. You can support and encourage your student as they make choices about classes and majors.

Disability Support Services

TLC 028

Gloria Jensen, Coordinator, Disability Support Services; Angela Schweigert, Learning Disabilities Specialist, Disability Support Services

DSS offers an array of services for students with permanent or temporary disabilities. Accommodations and services provided in the college setting may significantly differ from those in the K-12 setting. We will discuss the differences and answer questions regarding accommodations and other disability-related issues, such as disability documentation in the university setting, housing needs, etc.

Resources for Parents to Support Career Exploration and Decision Making

TLC 031

Eric Anderson, Manager, Career Advising and Professional Development, Career Center

Learn about Career Center and online resources for parents including what to do and what not to do to support your student as they explore, choose a major, and decide on jobs and careers to pursue.

Honors Program Parent Orientation

TLC 032

Alton Campbell, Director, University Honors Program & current Honors Program students

This session is only offered during Session 1 and 2. Attend this for a preview of the fall semester and to answer questions about new students' transitions to UI and the UHP.
