Elementary, Middle School, Jr. High School Instrumental Combo

Regulations

1. Division definition – An instrumental ensemble with 9 or fewer performers
2. Date of performance – Thursday, February 23
3. Eligibility – Students attending Elementary, Middle, Junior High, and Junior Secondary schools are eligible to perform. Homeschooled students and those attending online educational programs are also eligible to perform. These age groups generally perform on the Thursday of the Festival week.

However, if necessary Vocal groups may register for a Friday performance and Instrumental groups may register for a Saturday performance. If registering for a Friday or Saturday performance, please be sure to choose the correct day when completing the online forms.

If necessary, older students and/or non-students may accompany instrumental soloists as well as vocal ensembles, vocal combos and vocal soloists. Elementary Schools may use accompanists in any division. The accompanist may not sing or perform solos. The Festival encourages the use of student accompanists whenever possible.
