WorkLife Consultation and Referral services are a component of your Employee Assistance Program.

We all have times we worry about our work, family and personal life. Sometimes our lives are more stressful than other times, and it’s only natural that you may need someone to talk with or need help finding a reliable resource. Your Employee Assistance Program’s WorkLife Consultation and Referral Services put reliable resources for every day concerns at your fingertips. Easy to use, these services get you the answers and information you need and all at no cost to you.

What does the service provide?
This service takes the legwork out of provider searches. It gives you access to the expertise of WorkLife consultants as well as web access to thousands of practical, up-to-date articles, calculators, links, interactive planners and self-assessments.

How does it work?
Services are available through your EAP toll-free number or on the website below. A WorkLife consultant can help you identify the resources that best meet your needs and match your criteria. Within 12 business hours, you will receive up to three provider profiles with booklets and/or tip sheets, etc. related to your search.
