

Tom Morris

2015 Honorary Alumnus

Longtime Vandal radio broadcaster Tom Morris has a history with the University of Idaho. While working for local radio stations KZFN and KHTR, he hosted Vandal sports broadcasts for many years.

From 2003-2006, he served UI Athletics as assistant athletic director/director of athletic sales. He later acted as associate general manager and general manager for Learfield Sports on the Moscow campus.

Morris serves the university and Palouse region in many ways. He is a goodwill ambassador for all things Idaho, serving as master of ceremonies at dinners and fundraising events, including Moscow Relay for Life and other endeavors throughout the area.
