

International Education Week

November 18-22, 2019

All Week

November 18-22

Pin the Map with Your Hometown & International Education Profiles

Library First Floor

Read stories of how students, staff and faculty have been transformed by international education, and help build a map of where our Vandal community is from.

Monday,

November 18

Student Panel

IRIC Atrium, 12:00-1:30pm

How has international education been transformative for Vandals? Learn from the experiences and stories of students.

Transforming Educational Reform in the Arab World: The Journey of the TAMAM Project

Education Building Room 141, 3:00-4:00pm

TAMAM was launched as a joint initiative through a memorandum of understanding between the Arab Thought Foundation and the American University of Beirut to build leadership capacity for sustainable school-based improvement. This presentation will outline the journey of the TAMAM steering team highlighting stories of the success experienced as well as the challenges faced. This event is brought to you by Julia Mahfouz and the College of Education, Health and Human Sciences.

International Student, Scholar & Family Game Night

The Center, 822 Elm Street, 5:00—7:00pm

Gather with the international student and scholar community for an evening of games!

Tuesday,

November 19

Pizza & Speed-Friending

IRIC Atrium, 3:30-5:00pm

Eat free pizza and get to know Vandals from around the globe with get-to-know-you activities.

Comparative Health Systems in London Info Session

IPO Conference Room, 4-5 pm

Learn about the upcoming May 2020 Comparative Health Systems Ed Abroad trip

Wednesday,

November 20

Faculty Panel

IRIC Atrium, 12:30-1:30pm

What does internationalization mean at U of I? How are we integrating global learning, supporting international students, and creating a culture that celebrates diverse perspectives and ways of knowing?

