Time to Complete a Course
Plan for a minimum of three months to complete most ISI courses. Students work at their own pace with little to no instructor interaction. Instructors will grade assignments within three weeks of the due date, but are not required to grade faster than the maximum number of assignments per week listed in the Course Rules on Blackboard. Students must complete all assignments and exams to be eligible for a final course grade. Courses are designed for the student who works well independently with limited interaction with instructors. Examine requires a practice. Submit exam proctor request a minimum of two weeks before taking an exam. Students living outside of the United States must use an educational testing center.

Grades & Transcripts
Students who have a personal deadline (e.g., graduation, program admission) must submit all assignments and exams at least one month before their deadline to allow for processing. Transcripts can be purchased from the credit-granting institution’s registrar one business day after a student receives a course completion email from ISI. ISI does not send out transcripts. To determine the credit-granting institution (UI, LCSC or ISU), refer to the abbreviation listed next to the course. For more information, see the University’s Course Catalog. Official transcripts are available on VandalWeb for U of I sponsored ISI courses and transferred credits.

The University of Idaho DOES NOT calculate ISI course credits or transfer credits into the institutional GPA. Students at other universities may contact their Registrar’s Office to find out if ISI course grades will be calculated into their GPAs. Most institutions will not calculate these credits into the institutional GPA. Students at other universities may contact their Registrar’s Office to find out if ISI course grades will be calculated into their GPAs. Most colleges and universities have transfer credit limitations.

Admission
Students can register for ISI courses without applying for admission to any of the cooperating schools. Administrators at any of these institutions can be granted by registering for an ISI course. Academic adviser approval is required for UI students before registering and is recommended for all students.

Registration
