RIVER LIFE®

along the

Dutch Waterways

aboard the Exclusively Chartered Deluxe AMADEUS BRILLIANT

April 21 to 29, 2020
Dear alumni and friends:

It is said that “God created the Heavens and the Earth, but the Dutch created Holland.” Indeed, not only did they wrest a portion of their land from the sea, but they built upon it an enchanted realm carpeted by vibrant flowers and laced with storied waterways.

Join us on this exclusively chartered river cruise aboard the deluxe AMADEUS BRILLIANT, one of the finest ships to ply the waterways of Europe and traverse the canals of this delightful land of polder. Celebrate the beauty of Holland and old-world Flanders in blissful springtime—the ideal season for this comprehensive itinerary, when the tulip fields are in full bloom.

Discover the true essence of river life in the Low Countries. Our expert-guided tours explore three UNESCO World Heritage sites: Amsterdam’s 16th- and 17th-century house-lined canals, the medieval Flemish jewel of Bruges and four of the historic belfries included in the Belfries of Belgium serial property. Experience this sublime region’s pastoral idyll and fascinating history with visits to “Golden Age” Hoorn, the world-famous Keukenhof Gardens, the old Hanseatic city of Kampen, seldom-visited ancient Maastricht, the mercantile town of Antwerp and medieval Ghent, home to the Van Eyck brothers’ Adoration of the Mystic Lamb— the world’s most coveted masterpiece. Walk through the poignant World War II American Military Cemetery in Margraten and discover the artistic legacy of the world-class Kröller-Müller Museum. Learn more about the modern life and cultural heritage of the Netherlands during an exclusive RIVER LIFE® FORUM with local residents and encounter the rich history of the Flemish-speaking county of Flanders in its main cultural centers.

Unpack just once and delight in specially arranged CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS, including a privately chartered small boat canal cruise and an exclusive organ concert. Enjoy an included, guided excursion in every port, deluxe accommodations and all meals—an excellent value.

River Life® along the Dutch Waterways is a perennial favorite; reserve now while early booking savings and space are still available.

Sincerely,

Kathy Barnard

Custom-designed and intimate, this hallmark travel program will immerse you in the daily life of the Low Countries. There is no better time to visit the Netherlands than during spring, when the legendary gardens of Keukenhof put on their glorious flower show, with over seven million tulips, daffodils, hyacinths and other flowers blossoming across 79 acres of woodland. The Golden Age of the Netherlands is alive in the iconic works of its master painters—from Vermeer to Brueghel—and in its flourishing landscapes and remarkably preserved medieval towns, where gabled homes line cobblestone streets and peaceful canals. During this comprehensive reis (cruise) along the great Dutch and Flemish waterways, experience firsthand the distinct heritage, cultural traditions and friendly people of Holland and Flanders.

Amsterdam

In Amsterdam, one of Europe’s most enchanting cities, a skein of canals weaves between handsome 17th-century merchant houses, charming houseboats and world-renowned museums and galleries.

Cultural Enrichments: A private cruise through the UNESCO-designated canal district offers a unique look at the integral role waterways have played in the life of this city, which began as a simple fishing village and flourished into the 17th century’s foremost economic center. Meet and engage with locals during the specially arranged River Life® Forum. Stroll through a vivid tableau of blooming tulips as far as the eye can see in the beloved Keukenhof Gardens.

Hoorn

The “trumpet of the Zuider Zee,” according to poet Joost van den Vondel, Hoorn formed the epicenter of the Dutch East India Company’s trade routes during the 17th century. Golden Age wealth and grandeur prevail in the quaint buildings of Roode Steen Square and the city’s photogenic harbor, overlooked by the 16th-century Hoofdtoren tower, one of Hoorn’s last preserved defenses.

Kampen

Medieval gates, towers and walls crowned with whimsical spires and turrets grace the skyline of picturesque Kampen, a former Hanseatic League city that hosts one of the Netherlands’ best-preserved town centers. See the Gothic masterpiece of the Old Town Hall, the leaning 17th-century New Tower—whose carillon of 48 bells is played on market days—and the aesthetic harmony of the IJssel drawbridge, built in 1998 to reflect the original 15th-century structure.

Cultural Enrichments: During a private, specially arranged concert in the Gothic Bovenkerk, listen to the intonation of more than 3000 pipes resonating from the 18th-century Hinsz organ.

Keukenhof Gardens

Affectionately known around the world as the “Garden of Europe” for its paramount beauty, Keukenhof is a brilliant and breathtaking tapestry of color and fragrance when its over 1000 floral varieties reach full bloom between mid April and early May. Meticulously landscaped with tranquil ponds, placid streams and winding, tree-shaded paths, this vibrantly hued oasis was designed in 1857 by Jan David Zocher of Vondelpark fame. The gardens of Keukenhof (“kitchen garden”) originally formed part of the Teylingen Castle Estate, where the early 15th-century Countess Jacoba of Bavaria tended an herb and vegetable garden.
Kröller-Müller Museum
Among the heathlands and dunes of the Netherlands' largest national park, De Hoge Veluwe, is the superlative Kröller-Müller Museum, lauded for its chronological collection of 90 Van Gogh paintings and 180 of his drawings.

Cultural Enrichment: By specially arranged early entrance to the museum, see works by Picasso, Monet, Renoir and Manet, as well as captivating late 19th- to 21st-century pieces by Rodin, Moore and Dubuffet, wreathed in the idyllic woodland scenery of the 60-acre sculpture garden.

Nijmegen
A vibrant university town layered with history, attractive Nijmegen was originally settled by the Romans in the first century B.C. Explore a cornucopia of pristinely preserved buildings, including the turreted 15th-century town hall—plucked straight from a child's picture book—and the 17th-century, Renaissance-style De Waagh. Overlooking the River Waal, Valkhof Hill features the impressive Barbarossa Ruins and ninth-century Carolingian chapel.

Maastricht
Settled by the Romans around 50 B.C., the fabled city of Maastricht embraces its status as the cradle of the European Union and a hub of arts and culture. Visit the Romanesque Basilica of Our Lady, built in A.D. 1000, and the Basilica of St. Servatius, where Charlemagne is said to have attended Mass and where the 11th-century sarcophagus of the city's patron saint is enshrined. Stand on the 13th-century city wall for a scenic view across the River Meuse.

In nearby Margraten, walk through one of Europe's largest American military cemeteries, where the brave U.S. soldiers who gave their lives for the liberation of the Netherlands during World War II rest in peace.

Antwerp
The alluring Old Town of Antwerp preserves its distinct Flemish culture in a labyrinth of squares and cobbled streets, studded with museums, mansions and churches that lead to the vibrant Grote Markt, where the town hall's historic belfry, part of the Belfries of Belgium UNESCO World Heritage site, still stands tall.

Visit the Cathedral of Our Lady—with its UNESCO-inscribed belfry, the tallest church tower in Belgium—which preserves the 17th-century Baroque masterpieces of the city's native son, Peter Paul Rubens, including paintings of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary, The Raising of the Cross and The Descent from the Cross.

Delta Works Optional Excursion: Gain insight into the complex Delta Works, hailed as one of the Seven Wonders of the Modern World by the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Ghent
The authentic city of Ghent is replete with medieval and classical architecture. The UNESCO-designated Belfry of Ghent serves as a historical testament to the winning of civil liberties across the region. Admire the elegant windows and fanciful steeples of St. Bavo's Cathedral, a Gothic masterpiece and the city's enduring symbol with origins that date back to the 10th century. Proceed to the chapel to see the Van Eyck brothers' magnificent altarpiece Adoration of the Mystic Lamb—this polyptych is the most frequently stolen artwork of all time; in fact, one panel is still missing.

Bruges
Built around a double ring of charming canals connected by arched footbridges and renowned for its handcrafted chocolates, fairytale Bruges is a UNESCO World Heritage site of virtually untouched medieval architecture, including another landmark Belfry of Belgium. Enjoy a walking tour from the Market Square to the magnificent Gothic-style Chapel of the Holy Blood to see the richly decorated stone guildhalls and opulent churches.
