

Become a voice for Idaho 4-H!

Purpose of the 4-H Ambassador Program:

- Learn how to project a clear and accurate image of Idaho 4-H Youth Development
- Develop important leadership and communication skills to promote Idaho 4-H
- Participate in a wide variety of activities including team building, public speaking and workshops
- Meet new peers from all across the state and develop a strong network of 4-H advocates

About the Idaho 4-H Ambassador Conference:

- November 18-20, 2016
- Camp Ida-Haven, McCall, Idaho
- Grades 9 – 12

Registration and Transportation:

- Register through 4-H Online beginning October 3 – November 4, 2016
- Cost is $125.00/participant
- Additional $25.00 for a conference Polo shirt
- Transportation is provided to/from the conference; cost is included in registration

Additional Information:

- Contact your local county extension office for scholarship opportunities
- Ambassador and Teen Conference Steering Committee members as well as State Officers may register for a reduced rate of $50.00/member
- Chaperones who attend will pay at a reduced rate of $50 – applications will be available on Oct. 3

Additional Questions? Contact Shana Codr at scodr@uidaho.edu or Donna R. Gillespie at donna@uidaho.edu

University of Idaho
Extension