Lesson directions and outline

Conducting the activity (DO)

1. Ask youth to think about their motivations for having a livestock project and to write their thoughts on paper.

2. Explain that there are usually two main reasons why people do extracurricular activities: to have fun and/or to feel worthy or successful.

3. Write these two categories on the easel pad or board and ask participants to share the motivations they have written down. Write their responses under one of the categories. Ask youth which category they think is appropriate? How do you define good character?

4. Discuss their various motivations with the participants. Be sure to ask why caring for and exhibiting livestock is much more than winning and losing. Explain the connection with and importance of personal growth, becoming mature and responsible, and increasing knowledge.

5. Ask participants to share how their personal motivations might affect decisions made while raising or showing their project animals. How might an individual’s motivations cause them to take actions that many people would not see as being appropriate?

6. Ask participants, What is sportsmanship? Sportsmanship is exhibiting livestock with honor.

7. Ask participants, What is gamesmanship? Gamesmanship is all about winning for gain or glory. Discuss the difference between sportsmanship and gamesmanship.
8. Read the following: Success is the achievement of
   Read each statement in handout 2 and ask whether it represents gamesmanship (G) or sportsmanship (S)
   - Picking up a show stick that someone drops in the show ring S
   - Jabbing someone else’s animal in the show ring G
   - Being dishonest about an animal’s age when registering G
   - Teaching a younger exhibitor how to clip and fit a steer S
   - Opening a gate for someone who has had a pig penned S
   - Showing an animal in the wrong breed or division G
   - Letting another exhibitor borrow a brush S
   - Telling the judge that your animal weighs a different amount than what the card says G
   - Taking leadership of the county showmanship training to help others S
   - Blocking the judge’s view of another animal in the class G
   - Sharing your knowledge about selecting projects with others S
   - Depriving your animal of the appropriate amount of feed and water to get its weight down G
   - Helping a younger exhibitor carry a bucket of water S

What did we learn? (REFLECT)
- Ask: Why should we strive for sportsmanship, not gamesmanship?
- Ask: What can you do at the club or at the show to promote sportsmanship?

Why is that important? (APPLY)
- Ask: What character traits connect to sportsmanship?
- Ask: How does sportsmanship impact the industry? How?

Steps for Writing Goals

1. Make sure the goal is something you really want, not just something that sounds good.
2. Write a goal in the positive instead of the negative (for example, “I will...”).
3. Write your goal in complete detail.
4. Make sure you set your goal high enough.
5. WRITE IT DOWN!

Example:

My personal goals are:
To practice showing my steer four times a week
To brush my steer twice a week
To clean the pig pen three times a week
To help my younger sister feed her calf
To participate in at least three shows this year
To improve my math grades
To lead a showmanship clinic this year for my club

My personal goals are:
