

SAVE THE DATE

NOVEMBER 17-19, 2017

4-H Ambassadors are youth leaders who promote 4-H using their skills, knowledge and leadership abilities. A 4-H Ambassador serves to strengthen the 4-H program through education, recruitment and public relations.

At the Summit youth will:

- Participate in workshops:
 - Head – Critical Thinking
 - Heart – Accepting Differences
 - Hands – Self-Motivation
 - Health – Lifestyle Choices
- Learn how to project a clear and accurate image of Idaho 4-H Youth Development
- Develop important leadership and communication skills to promote Idaho 4-H
- Meet new peers from across the state and develop a strong network of 4-H advocates

Chaperones who attend will pay at a reduced rate of $50 – applications will be available on Oct. 6th

University of Idaho
Extension

Camp Ida-Haven
McCall, ID

Registration
Opens in 4-H
Online October 6 -
November 3, 2017

Cost is $125/participant;
includes transportation

Scholarships Available – Contact Your Local 4-H Office

Open to all Idaho
4-H youth - 14 and older

FOR MORE INFORMATION
Donna R. Gillespie
donna@uidaho.edu
208-312-4109