Make Plans for the New Year

As you start the new year, we wanted to share some tips and tricks to make this the best year in 4-H yet. Whether this is your first or 10th plus a few more, here are some things to help you plan:

• Get a calendar and start using it. Right now there are lots of businesses giving calendars away and lots of businesses selling them. Pick up one (or a few for each youth in your family) and start putting down important dates. Make sure you have club meeting dates, important school/sports dates, family vacation, fair, interview days, weigh-ins, contest dates, 4-H camp, 4-H conferences, and anything else you can think of. (Flip through the newsletter, it’s full of dates!) Conflicts happen when it comes to scheduling. However the sooner you know about them, the sooner you can make your plan of what to do.

• Keep an eye on the monthly newsletter and Friday emails. No really. We mail and email the newsletter and email out the Friday email. It is the best way to be in the know. Tell your friends!

• Check out Know Before You Show! Samantha, our Extension Livestock Educator, is helping with tips for preparing for Fair. Early in the year the tips will come out monthly and as we get closer to Fair, they will come out weekly. Know Before You Show will be full of pro-tips and great information to help you be prepared for showing off your animal project.

• Plan to attend 4-H Camp! If you want to get the most out of 4-H, you want to take advantage of opportunities beyond your club. 4-H Camp is held in the summer alongside beautiful Cascade Lake. It is one of the most competitively priced camps in our area and your non-4-H friends are invited too. Busses transport youth to camp from multiple locations in the Treasure Valley. Check out 4hadventurecamp.com.

• Plan to attend 4-H Conferences! Starting as early as middle school, pre-teens and teens have so many more opportunities. From Southern District Ambassadors Retreat (February), Know Your Government Conference (February), Idaho 4-H State Teen Association Convention (June), and Ambassadors Summit (November) you can learn about leadership, public speaking, picking a college and major, and so much more at these conferences. There are busses to all but Know Your Government and there are scholarships too!

• Apply for travel scholarships. Did you know we have lots of scholarships? The Canyon County Leaders’ Council fundraises every year during the Snake River Stampede (hundreds of 4-Hers volunteer for this) and scholarships are provided. Download the scholarship application from our county website and be sure to keep an eye on the deadline (listed on the application). There are also scholarships available through the State 4-H Office. We send out those opportunities in the Friday email.

• Contact your 4-H leader and the Extension Office with questions. Your leader is your first point of contact and has lots of experience to help. The Extension Office is also here to help you and loves to help! We hope that 2019 is your best year yet!

Volunteer Development Opportunities During 4-H Council Meetings

All are welcomed to attend Canyon County 4-H Leaders’ Council meetings held on the second Thursday at 7pm in February, April, June, September, and November. The agenda includes setting the budget, awarding scholarships, supporting county 4-H events, networking, and promoting 4-H in the community.

Council meetings also include a volunteer development training for volunteers to gain new skills and ideas to implement at their club meetings. The next meeting is February 14 at 7pm.

You're Invited!
Idaho Horsemanship Award

Competition for the Idaho Horsemanship Award is a test of knowledge and skills in horsemanship. The purpose of the award is to honor the most talented youth riders in Idaho.

Any youth at least 14 years of age, but not more than 19 years of age by January 1, 2019, and who is enrolled in an organized horse program, may apply for this award. Applicants must own or manage the horse used in the competition for a minimum of 120 days before the performance test. The application can be found on the Idaho 4-H website at http://www.uidaho.edu/extension/4h/programs/contests or obtained from the Canyon County Extension Office.

Application deadline is Wednesday, February 1. Applications can be faxed to 208-454-6349 or mailed to Canyon County Extension, 501 Main Street, Caldwell, ID 83605.

The written test will be held the week of February 18-22. The date for the Idaho Horsemanship Award performance test is Sunday, July 20.

2019 University of Idaho 4-H and BLM Wild Horse Training Program

Saturday, February 9, 9:30 tour of facility & pickup of horses
BLM Wild Horse Corrals, off Pleasant Valley Road in Boise
Application Deadline: January 31, postmarked

All youth must be at least 12 years old to participate. The public is welcome to come even if they do not wish to foster a Mustang.

There will be a trail challenge on March 23 at 10am at the BLM holding facility. Mustangs will be on display at the Idaho Horse Expo on April 12-14. All mustangs will be available to be adopted out on Sunday, April 14.

For more information contact Carrie Johnson at carriej@uidaho.edu or Raul Trevino at rtrevino@blm.gov.

Canyon County 4-H Horse Bowl and Pony Bowl Contests

Saturday, February 2
First Christian Church, 619 12th Ave S, Nampa
$10 per person for Canyon County Junior/Senior
$3 per person for Pony Bowl
$0 per person for Cloverbud
Deadline: January 22
Checks payable to Canyon County 4-H Horse Leaders

Pre-registration and payment is required to participate. Participants cannot enter both Junior and Regular Bowl. Participants must be enrolled for the 2019 4-H year before registering.

Cloverbud and Pony Bowl Participation: This event is for registered Cloverbuds (ages 5-7) and for any age registered 4-H member who isn’t ready to compete. Event will be played like a regular Horse Bowl competition, but the event will be educational and scores will not be kept. Participation prizes will be given to every participant. (Start time will depend on the number of participants for all the contests.)

Junior and Senior Team Horse Bowl Competitions:
Teams will consist of 4-5 youth. Juniors are ages 8-13 and Seniors are 14-18 as of January 1. Teams may be made of members from different clubs. Contact Vicki McKee at vickimc4688@yahoo.com or 208-880-7515 if you have youth that want to be placed on a team. (Start time will depend on the number of participants for all the contests.)

Awards will be presented to the top three teams and the top five individuals in both Junior and Regular Bowl. The top three teams in both contests qualify to compete at the District level on Saturday, March 2, 2019, in Fruitland. Cloverbud and Pony Bowl will receive participation ribbons.

For more information contact the Canyon County Extension Office at 208-459-6003.

Horse Study Sessions
Please take advantage of group horse contest practices (Horse Bowl, Hippology and Horse Judging) led by Canyon County Horse Leaders.

Tuesday Nights from 6:30pm-8:30pm
UI District Classroom, 1902 E. Chicago, Caldwell

Everyone is welcome to attend!
Market Livestock Sale Committee

Tuesday, January 15, 7pm
Canyon County Extension

ATTENTION all livestock clubs! The Market Livestock Sale Committee (MLSC) meeting is coming up on January 15. The MLSC manages the Canyon County Market Livestock Sale. The committee includes volunteers from the meat industry, youth, livestock superintendents, fair board members, extension staff and representatives from each club.

This committee decides on issues concerning the sale, whether it’s a simple issue or a major issue such as changing the sale date/time. Every 4-H club that offers any market animal project is requested to send a representative to cast their vote at these meetings. Please find someone to represent your club at the next MLSC meeting.

COOL Forms

Reminder: Get your COOL forms signed when you buy your market animals! We will be collecting the forms again this year. The forms are available on the Canyon County Extension website, at the Office or they can be emailed to you.

Idaho 4-H Livestock Skill-a-thon Contest

January 26, 2019, 9am check-in
Jerome County Fairgrounds
$20/team - Leaders/Parents Lunch $10/each
Deadline: January 7, 2019

The skill-a-thon contest provides an opportunity for youth to blend knowledge and skills acquired in livestock judging, demonstrations, care and exhibition of animals into one activity. Youth will learn about the importance of livestock and their products to the environment, expanding their knowledge and participation.

Junior Division is open to those youths 8-13 years of age. Senior Division is open to those youth who are ages 14-18 as of January 1, 2019. Mixed age division teams are allowed in the Senior Division, but will not be invited to Nationals. Only the top Senior Division team will be invited to represent Idaho at a National contest in Louisville, KY in 2019.

Registration and payment can be completed at www.uidaho.edu/4hevents. For more information contact Scott Nash at snash@uidaho.edu.

4-H Market Broilers/Fryers Project

Do you have a small backyard? Don’t have the space to raise a large market animal? Why not try the market poultry project! The Market Poultry project consists of raising Cornish-Cross chicks for 8-10 weeks, only a fraction of the time that it takes to raise any other market project! Birds must be pre-ordered and pre-purchased. Contact the Canyon County Extension Office at 208-459-6003 or email Tina Holmquist at tinah@uidaho.edu for more information. The first step to participate in this market animal project is to re-enroll for the 2018/2019 4-H year.

After you have updated your enrollment information, under participation, click the project tab, select your club and select “Birds-Market Broiler” as the project you are enrolling in.
Fair preparation has begun.

Kids are talking with producers, buying animals, going to 4-H meetings and starting to stress record keeping. “Know Before You Show” has been created to help leaders, parents, youth, and anyone alike prepare for the 2019 Canyon County Fair. Each month we will deliver tips and tricks to help you get yourself and your animal prepped for weigh-in, shows, and the sale. January is just the beginning for most. A few tricks to help you be successful this year...

Set deadlines for yourself.

Don’t try and complete your record book all in one frantic night before interviews. Begin now! Start with your goals. What do you want to be successful at this year? Work on your Oral Presentation. What do you want to learn about? Was there something last year that you had a question about? If so, do some and educate your fellow 4-H members about what you learned.

Purchase a calendar.

Every time you have a meeting, practice, or any 4-H related activity including a service project, write it down. This will help when you sit down to complete your record book as you will have all the dates written down with the event you attended.

If you have any questions about fair, please reach out to the Canyon County Extension Office. Many times, you are not the only one with the question. It may just get published in next month’s “Know Before You Show”!

2019 4-H Beekeeping Essay Contest

The topic for the 2019 Beekeeping Essay Contest sponsored by The Foundation for the Preservation of Honey Bees, Inc. is “Honey Varietals, State to State”.

Each jar of honey reflects an unrepeatable combination of climate, soil weather and flowers. Each state has unique honey varietals that beekeepers can market to their customers. Please identify one unique varietal to your state and discuss the flower’s uniqueness and how beekeepers can effectively market that varietal.

In your essay, please include a photo of the varietal’s flower, an interview with a local beekeeper who collects the varietal and a recipe that highlights the varietal.

An essential judging criterion is the scope of research you put forth in developing the ideas behind your essay—accounting for 40% of your score. The number of sources consulted, the authority of the sources, and the variety of the sources are all evaluated. Personal interviews with beekeepers and others familiar with the subject are valued sources of information and should be documented.

Note that “honey bee” is properly spelled as two words, even though many otherwise authoritative references spell it as one word.

Entries must be submitted electronically to fourh@uidaho.edu by February 1 with the subject line stating “Beekeeping Essay.” The contest is open to active 4-H club members only. 4-H members who have previously placed first, second or third at the national level are not eligible; but other state winners are eligible to re-enter.

Awards: 1st-$750, 2nd-$500, 3rd-$250
These awards will be given to the top three winners in the nation. Each state winner will receive a book about honey bees, beekeeping or honey.

For more detailed national formatting requirements see: 2019 4-H Beekeeping Essay Contest (PDF) or check your Friday email.

Well-Connected Communities Volunteer Program

University of Idaho Extension is piloting a new health and wellness volunteer program in 2019, starting February 5. Volunteers will be trained on how to address community health issues and priorities and will receive education on the social determinants of health, basic nutrition, physical activity recommendations, diabetes, chronic disease prevention, public speaking, and more.

- WHO: Youth who are 12 years or older and adults are welcome to participate! Both youth and adults will be participating in the same program and will be delivered the same materials. Families are welcome to join! This could be a great parent-child volunteer experience!
- FORMAT: The program is offered in an in-person and online dual learning experience. In-person dates are on Tuesdays: February 5, 12, 19, 26 and March 5, 12, 19 from 5:30-7:30 pm. Online modules will be provided for an additional two more hours of learning during the week at your own pace. The program will have office hours for the online program on Thursdays from 5:30-7:30 pm, so online modules may want to be completed during that time if you anticipate having any questions.
- WHERE: The Tuesday in-person classes will be held at the Canyon County Extension Office (501 Main Street, Caldwell, ID 83605).
- COST: $10.00 per person. This is a pilot program, so we are keeping costs low!
- EXPECTATIONS: There are no required volunteer hour expectations once you have completed the program during the pilot year. We are looking to see what volunteer opportunities may come from this program and will offer these opportunities during the year to volunteers who have completed their training as they come.
- QUESTIONS? Contact the Canyon County Extension Office at 208-459-6003 or email Jackie Amende at jamende@uidaho.edu.

The mission of the Teen Advocates is to encourage 4-H and other youth organizations across Idaho to have effective healthy living programs. Healthy living includes nutrition, physical activity and social well-being. The teens learn healthy living skills: basic nutrition, cooking, food preparation and safety along with teaching, logistic and leadership (communication, awareness, respect) skills.

If you have any questions or would like to learn more about this program, contact Maureen Toomey at 208-454-7648 or mtoomey@uidaho.edu.
