This workshop series focuses on topics that assist landowners in producing and marketing agriculture products that are sold locally. Topics include soils, vegetable production, growing tree fruit, processing and marketing, raising livestock, farmers markets, viticulture & many other topics. Whether you are looking for additional ways to derive income from your property, or are thinking of starting a local agriculture business, this workshop series will offer information to help you reach your goals.

SMALL FARMS & COMMUNITY FOOD SYSTEMS SERIES

2019

UI Extension Office Clearwater County
2200 Michigan Avenue
Orofino, Idaho

Tuesday's starting at 6:00 p.m. January 29, February 5 & 12, 2019

Sign-in at 5:30 pm each night
Each evening: 6:00 pm—6:10 pm  Welcome & Introduction, Bill Warren, UI Extension, Clearwater County

Tuesday, January 29, 2019: 6:00—8:30 pm
How to Generate Income Raising Sheep and Goats, January Spencer, Thors Forge Farms

Tuesday, February 5, 2019: 6:00—8:30 pm
Irrigation Systems to Boost Productivity, Iris Mayes, UI Extension, Latah County

Tuesday, February 12, 2019: 6:00—8:30 pm
Growing Fodder as a Livestock Feed to Boost the Profitability of Your Livestock Operation, January Spencer, Thors Forge Farms

* Each evening program will include a break with light refreshments.