

Gem and Boise Counties 4-H Program

Erling Johannesen Scholarship Application Application – must be turned into the Extension Office 21 business days prior to event.

Erling Johannesen graduated from the University of Idaho College of Agriculture and Life Science. He began his career as the Gem County Extension Agent in 1944. For 37 years he inspired 4-H youth to aspire to higher levels of leadership within their club, community and country. Erling and Amy Johannesen Scholarship was created in 2008, with income going to Idaho 4-H programs, administered by the U of I College of Agriculture. Erling also served for many years on the board of the U of I Foundation. He was the first in Idaho history to be named for service on a four-man Board of Directors of National Association of County Agricultural Agents.

The Johannesen's continue to support Idaho 4-H and the University of Idaho. Scholarship cannot be guaranteed due to limited annual funding. Enrolled adults and youth in good standing are eligible to apply.
