CODE OF CONDUCT
FOR PARENT, VOLUNTEERS, ADVISORS AND 4-H/FFA YOUTH

Idaho families and youth trust the University of Idaho Extension System to provide educational programs in a safe environment for all participants. The opportunity to participate in and/or work with Extension's Idaho 4-H Youth Development and FFA programs is a privilege and honor, not a right. Volunteers and Advisors are to be positive role models. Youth and parents/guardians are expected to demonstrate appropriate behavior at all times. The following code of conduct has been established as the foundation for all individuals participating in University of Idaho Extension programs. All 4-H Youth Development and FFA program participants are expected to:

- Work with youth, families, volunteers and Extension personnel in a cooperative, courteous, respectful manner, demonstrating good sportsmanship and behaviors appropriate for a positive role model.
- Accept supervision from Superintendents and Extension personnel regarding fair events/activities and cooperate with others. In addition, parents and youth will accept supervision from certified leaders and FFA advisors.
- Maintain open, honest communication with member, leader, parents, and Extension personnel.
- Uphold every individual's right to dignity, appropriate self expression and individual developments.
- Refrain from verbal or physical abuse of others and report such abuse, if observed. Such action as conviction for child abuse or neglect, violent crimes, unethical behavior, substance abuse, verbal abuse, physical abuse, mismanagement of 4-H funds, or other serious offences, will not be tolerated.
- Respect, adhere to, and enforce the rules, policies and guidelines established at the local and state levels for the 4-H Youth Development program and FFA code.
- Promote the spirit of inclusion and welcome participation of other individuals from all backgrounds. Comply with equal opportunity and anti-discrimination laws.
- Refrain from consuming alcoholic beverages, use of tobacco products and/or a controlled substance at 4-H events and activities. Being under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs while in the presence of 4-H members at or during 4-H programs or activities is not acceptable.
- Inform Extension personnel of any incidents that may violate 4-H/FFA policies.
- Treat animals humanely and encourage participants to provide appropriate, responsible and ethical animal care.
- Operate machinery, vehicles, and other equipment in a safe and responsible manner when working with youth and adult participants in 4-H Youth Development and FFA programs.
- Ensure that 4-H and FFA participants are not required to purchase materials, equipment, animals or services from any specific place of business.
- Comply with all applicable laws of the city, county, and state of residence and/or location of 4-H/FFA activity.
- Handle all concerns regarding local/area 4-H/FFA program management internally within the University of Idaho Extension System and/or the FFA chapter sponsoring school district.

Violating the Code of Conduct shall be grounds for action up to or including immediate removal from the 4-H/FFA activity/program, termination and removal from the fairgrounds for the duration of the Fair. Decisions regarding immediate removal, suspension or termination will be made by the local Extension Office Personnel in cooperation with the Lincoln County Leaders' Council, with subsequent notification of and consultation with the District Director and state 4-H, and /or the FFA chapter sponsoring school district. Those who wish to appeal a decision may do so through the appeal process.

I have read, understand and agree to abide by this Code of Conduct.
