The Coordinated Program in Dietetics (CPD) at the University of Idaho is currently granted accreditation for 18 students by the Accreditation Council for Education in Nutrition and Dietetics (ACEND) by the Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, 120 S. Riverside Plaza, Suite 2190, Chicago IL 60606-6995, phone 800.877.1600 ext. 5400

Upon acceptance to the professional phase of the CPD during the second semester of the sophomore year, students must maintain a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.8 to remain in and graduate from the program. Students must also obtain at least a B (80%) in all CPD courses for advancement in the Coordinated Program in Dietetics.

Program Description
Community nutrition is currently the area of concentration for the CPD. Graduates are prepared to function as entry-level Registered Dietitian Nutritionists in community, clinical, and management positions. After successful program completion, students graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in Family and Consumer Sciences and are eligible to take the Commission on Dietetic Registration (CDR) credentialing exam for Registered Dietitian Nutritionists.

Classrooms & Clinical Facilities
Junior students take classes on the University of Idaho campus and complete supervised practice experiences in Moscow area facilities. Senior students take classes in Boise or Coeur d’Alene in the fall while participating in community experiences. In the spring, seniors go to medical centers and school districts throughout the region including Spokane, Medical Lake, Coeur d’Alene, Post Falls, Moscow, Lewiston, Boise, and Ontario, OR for their supervised clinical and management practice. Satisfactory health is required for full participation in the program.
