RULES OF THE COMPETITION

1. The BTC is open to all students currently enrolled at the University of Idaho.
2. Participants must download the thinkorswim (TOS) software and use that software for the competition.
3. The TOS accounts will be funded with $100,000 of simulated funds. The object of the competition is to maximize profit by trading Authorized Securities. The winners will be judged based on the highest account Net Liquidating Values as of 1pm, Friday, April 13th.
4. Participants must attend one of the Training Sessions listed above to be eligible to play. A waiver of this requirement is provided for any student who has successfully completed FIN 465 Introduction to Market Trading (Note: previously listed as BUS 465).
5. Trading will be restricted to the “Authorized Securities” as detailed in the next section. Trading in non-authorized securities will result in a $10,000 penalty, plus any gains from those trades will be removed from the account. Any losses incurred from trading non-authorized securities will remain with the account in addition to the $10,000 penalty.
6. Participants must have a minimum of 10 round-trip trades during the competition. At least one trade must be in an ETF, and at least one trade must be in a futures contract. There is no maximum number of trades, however, strategies that “game” the trading platform are subject to disqualification at the discretion of the Official Judge.
7. Participants are not allowed to make deposits to their account, or to reset the account balance. ANY DEPOSITS OR RESETS WILL DISQUALIFY THE PARTICIPANT, NO EXCEPTIONS.
8. Participants will close out all of their positions prior to the end of trading (1pm Pacific time) on Friday, April 13th. All accounts should be in cash only at the end of trading on the 13th.

2. To log into thinkorswim, you must choose the "paperMoney" connection.
3. The training session (Wednesday, March 28th or Thursday, March 29th) will provide an overview of the different securities that we will be trading, including specific information about futures contracts. We will also provide training on how to use the thinkorswim software, including order entry, account monitoring, and risk management.
4. Please bring your laptop to the training session. We can make sure your account is functional and get some information that we need on your account. You will get hands-on experience with our tutorial. If you do not have a laptop, you may load the software on a desktop PC, and we will ask that you simply take notes at the training session.
