2018 Application Form for Secondary Teachers

The annual Nixon Institute includes both in-class and out-of-class portions. Students will receive a syllabus and reading list for the course no later than March. The in-class component of the class will take place in Moscow from June 18-29, and after that students will work on their final projects with the mentorship of faculty members. Final projects are due at the end of UI’s summer semester.

Application Instructions:

1.) If you are not a candidate within the M.A.T. or M.A. programs, you must apply to the University of Idaho to become a Non-Degree-Seeking Student. Visit www.uidaho.edu/admissions. Contact Admissions at (208) 885-6326 with questions.
2.) To be considered for full tuition scholarship, please return this application by FEBRUARY 1, 2018. The English Department will give funding priority to secondary teachers who apply for the Institute by this date.
3.) Once you are accepted to the University, fill out the Nixon Institute application completely. Please include UI Student ID #.
4.) Return completed application to:

   Jennifer Baillargeon-Hauck / Department of English / University of Idaho
   875 Perimeter Dr. MS 1102 / Moscow, ID, 83844-1102
   Phone: (208) 885-6156 / Nixon@uidaho.edu

5.) After you receive confirmation of acceptance, you must register for classes at www.vandalweb.uidaho.edu. Registration information will be provided with acceptance notification.

Last:__________________________________ First:_________________________ Middle Init:____
Date of Birth:__________________________ V# or Student ID:______________________________
Contact Phone:_________________________ Preferred Email:______________________________
Address:____________________________________________________________________________
City:__________________________________ State:___________ Zip:____________________________
School at which you will be employed 2018-2019:________________________________________
Are you a degree-seeking M.A.T. or M.A. student? YES / NO Last enrolled: ________________________

The in-class portion of the Institute will be in Moscow only. Will you require housing? YES / NO

(Please note that we provide housing for teachers for the in-class portion of the institute to those who must commute more than 50 miles one way to Moscow.)

NOTE: Degree Credit (ENGL) is available to students in degree-seeking programs. You must be either admitted to the MAT or MA-Eng program or actively applying to the MA-Eng program in order to receive degree credit. Degree credit scholarships will be reserved for those students actively seeking a degree; additional awards will be based on remaining scholarship funding.

Please indicate (X) the course(s) you wish to take and please specify if you are taking it for degree credit or as professional development:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>X</th>
<th>Course</th>
<th>In-Class Date/Location</th>
<th>Degree Credit</th>
<th>Prof. Development</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>ENGL 501-01: “Literature of the American West” Jennifer Ladino (3cr)</td>
<td>Moscow, June 18 – June 29 8:00am – 10:50am M-F</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>ENGL 501-02: “The Victorian Uncanny” Tara MacDonald (3cr)</td>
<td>Moscow, June 18 – June 29 11:00am – 1:50pm M-F</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Dual Credit English 101 and English 175

Please indicate (X) if you are currently teaching Dual Credit 101 or 175 through the UI, through another institution, or if you are interested in learning more about teaching Dual Credit English 101 or English 175 through the UI.

_____ I currently teach English 101 and/or English 175 through the University of Idaho
 _____ I currently teach English 101 and/or English 175 through another institution
 _____ I am interested in learning more about teaching Dual Credit English 101 and/or English 175 through the University of Idaho.