A NIGHT OF THEATRE

“Thinking like a director means believing in theatre’s ability to move humans to see the world anew, even if for a moment.” – Michael Bloom

Welcome!
Thank you so much for joining us tonight, as we celebrate the semester’s culmination of passion, vision, exploration, discovery, and learning surrounding the craft of the theatre director. The result is two nights of compelling and entertaining theatre, in the form of the 10-minute and one-act plays you are about to see.

This entire class wishes to say a deep ‘Thank You!’ to the student actors in these plays. We simply could not do this without your sacrifice and talents!
Also, thanks to the faculty and staff of the Department of Theatre Arts for their support of the creative aspirations and activities of our students.
Most importantly – thanks to YOU for being here tonight to see our work!
Enjoy the Plays!
