Proud to help make our region a vibrant place to live through support of the performing arts.
A Message from the Director

It has been a privilege to work with these young artists over the course of camp. This drama camp is very dear to my heart, as I started it in 2015 as a graduate student in the MFA Directing program.

I wanted this camp to be a program that gives children an opportunity to participate in a show regardless of talent or ability. Every child that walks through our door will get a part with lines, if they desire. This is the program I always hoped to offer to our community. The children in this camp have worked so hard on this production and I am honored to have been given the opportunity to work with them. Their imaginations have given this show so much light and life and it is so much fun to watch them perform. I hope you enjoy our magical journey into wonderland.

Kevin Baker (Camp Counselor) is a third-year theatre design, technology, management student focused on technical direction. He is from Boise and has loved working with a plethora of theatre companies before finding his new educational home at the University of Idaho. He recently served as assistant scenic designer for “Constellations.”

Kalista McCafferty (Camp Counselor Intern) was born and raised in Pullman and loves living on the Palouse. She is currently a junior at U of I studying theatre design, technology and management, and English with minors in creative writing and woman gender and sexuality studies. Kalista has worked in theatre for 13 years and after she graduates she hopes to move somewhere bigger and pursue her dream of being a playwright and lighting designer. She loves sharing theatre with new people, especially children because theatre was an integral part of her own childhood. It helped to shape her into the person she is today and even now continues to give her a sense of belonging. She thanks Rob Caisley and Christina Brandt for giving her this opportunity to expand her knowledge and be able to share the magic of theatre with the next generation.

Katie Pry (Camp Counselor) is thrilled to be working alongside the IRT theatre camp! She loves working with children of all ages. Katie is currently an MFA student, focusing on stage management. Her previous work includes “Cabaret,” “Measure for Measure,” “Mr. Burns: A Post Eletric Production” and more. When Katie isn’t stage managing or working as a counselor, she enjoys reading many books, and spending time with her fiancé and puppy Lady.

Shalonia Wonch (she/her) (Assistant Director) is excited to be back for her second year of IRT day camp. As a graduate from the University of Idaho with her BFA in theatre, as well as, an M.Ed. In curriculum and instruction Shalonia enjoys working with and inspiring the next generation of artist and community members. As a recent Chicago-based actor and teaching artist Shalonia has worked with young people at Steppenwolf Theatre, Seattle Rep, Seattle Children’s Theatre, Village Theatre and Bellevue Youth Theatre, as well as, having recently finished a 12 week classroom tour with Book-it Theatre. When Shalonia is not in the classroom or the stage you can find her hanging out with her cat, hiking, or reading.
