CLASS Ambassador Application

Due by April 15th for the following school year.

The College of Letters, Arts and Social Sciences (CLASS) Ambassadors are a select group of students representing all departments within our college. The CLASS Ambassadors assist the college in recruitment and retention of highly qualified student by attending events and participating in outreach projects.

Ambassadors have opportunities to develop communication and leadership skills, strengthen their professionalism, and establish working relations with university faculty, students, and staff. Ambassadors attend trainings and participate in a variety of CLASS recruitment, retention, and promotional activities.

Serving as a CLASS Ambassador is an honor and a privilege. Being a CLASS Ambassador requires a substantial time commitment. If accepted into the program, a minimum of two semesters of service is expected. Variable academic credit is offered for participation each fall and spring semester. Ambassadors may be required to pass a criminal background check.

How are ambassadors selected?

1. Applicants submit a complete application.
2. Applications will be reviewed by a committee.
3. Selected applicants will attend an in-person interview.
4. Selected student ambassadors will be notified to register for the CLASS Ambassador course in the upcoming semester.
