

UNIVERSITY of IDAHO STUDENTS

Idaho Asia Institute invites you to create your best original manga art

Drawing by Cami Heath, U of I College of Art & Architecture student

AsiaPOP!

MANGA

ART CONTEST

COMPETE FOR $2,000
IN SCHOLARSHIPS*

The Manga art show will coincide with

AsiaPOP!

an event at the University of Idaho, which celebrates and teaches about contemporary Asian pop culture.

All submitted work will be on display, either physically or digitally, at the University of Idaho, from Aug. 18 - Sept. 15, 2023, in conjunction with the exhibit "War and Manga," from the Kyoto International Manga Museum. All scholarships will be chosen by a panel of jurors from the University of Idaho and Kyoto Seika University.

All Work Must Be:

2D, any medium,
on artist grade paper:
8.5 x 11 cardstock or 9x12, 11x14, 14x17, and 19x24 high quality drawing paper like Bristol or Illustration.
(Do not use printer paper)

Submission Must Include:

a submission form,
found at [uidaho.edu/
class/iai](http://uidaho.edu/class/iai)

Deliver Art To:

Idaho Asia Institute
204 Admin Bldg

Mail to:
IAI Manga Contest
Idaho Asia Institute
875 Perimeter Dr
MS 3179
Moscow, ID 83844

SUBMISSIONS
May 29th - June 24th

Please see uidaho.edu/class/iai for more information on this event, how to submit, and the history of manga. Students are allowed to submit up to two works and IAI reserves the right to refuse any submission it deems inappropriate. By submitting work to this show, students agree to have their work used in any promotional materials for IAI and the University of Idaho. For more information, please email kyongmcclain@uidaho.edu.

*Scholarships are available in various amounts and can be used towards any degree.

