

IDAHO HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
Idaho Asia Institute invites you to create your best original manga art

Drawing by Cami Heath, U of I College of Art & Architecture student

COMPETE FOR $ 10,000
IN SCHOLARSHIPS

The Manga art show will coincide with

AsiaPOP!

an event at the University of Idaho,
which celebrates
and teaches about contemporary Asian pop culture.

SUBMISSIONS

May 29th
June 24th

can be sent by teachers
or students

AsiaPOP!

MANGA

ART CONTEST

All submitted work will be on display, either physically or digitally, at the University of Idaho, from Aug. 18 - Sept. 15, 2023, in conjunction with the exhibit "War and Manga," from the Kyoto International Manga Museum. All scholarships will be chosen by a panel of jurors from the University of Idaho and Kyoto Seika University.

All Work Must Be:

2D, any medium,
on artist grade paper
8.5 x 11 cardstock
or 9x12, 11x14, 14x17,
and 19x24 high quality
drawing paper like Bristol or Illustration.
(Do not use printer paper)

Submission Must Include:

on a separate sheet
of paper, your name,
the title of the work,
your home address,
email, phone number,
school, and your grade.

Send Art To:

IAI Manga Contest
Idaho Asia Institute
875 Perimeter Drive
MS 3179
Moscow, ID 83844

*Scholarships are available to incoming students for their first year at the University of Idaho. $8000 in various amounts for any degree and $2000 in various amounts for College of Art & Architecture degree students.

Please see uidaho.edu/class/iai for more information on this event, how to submit, and the history of Manga. Students are allowed to submit up to two works and IAI reserves the right to refuse any submission it deems inappropriate.

For more information, please email kyongmcclain@uidaho.edu.

