

2021 Virtual Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival

The 2021 Virtual Festival will still include all of our traditional opportunities: adjudicated performances, artist and educational workshops, and world-class concerts. We've adjusted aspects of this year's Festival to allow anyone in any circumstance to participate.

Join us Feb. 25-27, 2021 to experience this historic global event.

Registration & Student Performances

- Registration Dates: September 9 – December 18.
 - If your plans for February are not set by December 18 and you still want to participate, please reach out to our office.
- Registration Pricing
 - $100 Base – Educational Experience Package
 - Access to all workshops and concerts
 - Jazz Festival Welcome Kit
 - One free solo or combo adjudicated performance
 - Performances can be added to your base registration package for an additional:
 - $25 per solo
 - $50 per combo
 - $75 per large ensemble
- Performances
 - Video recordings will need to be submitted by Feb. 5, 2021.
 - Submissions will be reviewed by a world-class adjudicator who will work with performers in a live Zoom meeting Thursday, Friday, or Saturday of the Festival.
 - Adjudication meeting lengths:
 - 10 minutes per solo
 - 20 minutes per combo
 - 30 minutes per large ensemble
 - Videos may be edited or simply recorded live – to allow for this flexibility, the 2021 Festival performances will be non-competitive.
 - View our Rules & Regulations for more details.

Workshops

- Thursday, Feb. 25 – Lionel Hampton School of Music Day
 - Workshops in both classical and jazz genres
 - Presented by University of Idaho faculty
- Friday, Feb. 26 & Saturday, Feb. 27 – Jazz Festival Workshops
 - Workshops on primarily jazz related topics
 - Presented by a diverse group of vocal and instrumental artists, composers, educators, music business entrepreneurs, and more.

Concerts

- Thursday, Friday, and Saturday concerts will all be broadcast live for you to watch from your classroom or at home.
- Each concert will feature a mix of live performances by some of today's leading jazz artists and special archival footage of historical Festival performances with past jazz greats including Hamp himself.
- 2021 artist announcements are coming soon!
